From the President

Dave Wolfe
RSNC President

It is hard to believe but we are now just weeks away from the National Finals. The decision to move the Finals to June shortened this year but has received overwhelming support, with the exception of a few Oklahoma wheat farmers, and we apologize that we are on top of your harvest.

It is our hope that each of you kids will bring your parents so the entire family can enjoy the competition.

There are many new members attending and with that are many questions. Please read this magazine cover to cover because we have tried to address most of them.

Of course when you are through and if you still have questions, you are certainly welcome to call Susie at the RSNC office. I know she is going to want a raise but so far she is still smiling! We took on a huge challenge with tracking all dollars won and spent, plus the five qualifying shows for each contestant, and then all the National and State points races. I would like to thank Susie, Lisa, Marianne, Jessie and Laura for putting your sanctioning fees to good use. They have done a great job!

A special note about stalls at the finals: If you want covered stalls we must know by May 15th so they can be ordered. You can sign up for these on line or you can call Charlene at (580) 761-5249. All outside stalls can be reserved the same way. Also, be sure to call one of the listed motels and tell them you are with RSNC to get the best rates.

Many of you have just joined RSNC and have not had the opportunity to attend five sanctioned events to qualify for the maximum percent payback at the Finals. However, we want to be sure everyone knows that all members are welcome to compete at the finals, whether they make five shows or not.

If you didn't make five shows you will receive 20% less in payback but are still eligible for huge cash payouts! In addition, if you happen to be in the top 20 in points in your state you can also participate for the top 10 saddles and prizes plus the State are a state high point winner.

With over 40 sanctioned time to get those five shows win it all!

Producers we need your help as the Finals draws nearer. those points and five shows you can see, the calendar is next year. If you haven't booked your 2009, 2010 shows, please call me soon.

Now for the great news! With the Free Memberships and draw opportunities in all classes at most of our sanctioned events, we have more than doubled our membership this year and have welcomed nearly 3000 into our association. In this season we collected very few membership fees because the huge majority of our current members brought a friend along. Not only that but all those friends got to ride with everybody because everyone was in the draw at least once in every division. Folks, this is the result of a great team effort by your association and each and every one of you. It has worked so well we are going to continue it for the 2009-2010 season. All classes at the 2009 Finals will have a single draw requirement and every current member who has signed up a new member since March 1st 2009 will receive a free membership for 2009-2010.

All expired members will need to fill out their 2009-2010 membership forms after June 13 and will have the opportunity to bring another friend for another free membership. If you don't bring a new member, you will be required to buy a membership.

Memberships are $50 for an individual and $30 for an additional family member, or $100 for the entire family with kids 18 or under. Let's continue to make the best better!

Safe travels and Good Luck at the National Finals! I look forward to seeing you there!

Sincerely,

Dave Wolfe

RSNC MEMBERS FORUM

ATTENTION ALL PAINT HORSE OWNERS
RSNC is proud to announce that all RSNC sanctioned events are now PAC certified. That means you can actually earn Paint Horse Points in RSNC events. For details go to www.APHA.com.

PS: Other associations we hope to have partnerships with in the near future are Arabian Horse Registry, AQHA and Little Britches Rodeo.

What is the Paint Alternative Competition (PAC) program?

APHA approves more than 1,200 horse shows, races, and trail rides. Your community probably offers plenty of competitive events for horses and riders, such as 4-H shows, team penning events, roping events, horse trials, and other activities that fall outside the category of "APHA-approved classes."

Even though APHA is not officially associated with these events, the association does want to recognize your efforts on your American Paint Horse. As a result, your accomplishments can be recorded on your registered horse's official lifetime performance record through PAC.

A VARIETY OF COMPETITION

PAC is open to almost any type of activity as long as the competition is sponsored by an organization that keeps official records, for up to one year, on the performance of all horses entered in the event. Keep in mind that for APHA to include the event in PAC, the recognized association, organization or affiliate must have a representative who agrees to keep records and will sign a verification form for the exhibitor. PAC events and breed point appointed events can be held in conjunction; however an exhibitor cannot earn points and credits in the same class. Credits from other breed or color registries that award national points will not count.

HILL & BILLY

Hill: Jumpin Jehosafat!

Billy: What in tarnation are you so riled up about, Hill?

Hill: Did ya know that the Finals is only one month away?

Billy: So why is that such a concern to you? Is it that you don't have the cockleburs out of Snorty's tail yet?

Hill: Nope, that ain't it.

Billy: Is it becuz you ain't got your five shows in so you won't get 20% more in payback?

Hill: Nope, that ain't it.

Billy: Is it becuz you ain't reserved your stall by May 15th.

Hill: Nope that ain't it.

Billy: Then it must be cuz yur sittin 24th in the points race and yur havin to get in the top 20 so you have a chance for the saddles and prizes.

Hill: Nope, that ain't it either.

Billy: OK, let me try a couple more. It is cuz your sittin 2nd in the points race and yur wantin to be 1st so you, of all people, can represent our state in the State Extravaganza.

Hill: Nope, that ain't it.

Billy: How bout becuz you ain't booked our motel at the Holiday, Comfort, Quality or Econo Lodge. You know they have special RSNC rates if ya let them know you're here for the Finals don't ya?

Hill: Yep, I know that and I done done it.

Billy: Ok, I think I got it. It's cus you just heard that they is havin a Cowboy Race obstacle course at the Finals and yur horse won't cross a bridge or jump a log or go thru the water ditch and you got ta get him broke for all that so you can enter that Cowboy Race.

Hill: Now I ain't heard bout that yet but Snorty will do all of them things so I am fur sure getting in it. That will be a hoot!

Billy: OK, I give up! Why in tarnation are you so excited bout the Finals being just a month away!

Hill: Didn't you hear that John and LaJuanna are going to be there all week to run the cook shack! Everybody that knows them knows that they make the best homecookin in the whole durn state! LeJuanna's apple pies are so good I am going to quit eating startin right now so I will have plenty of room after one of John's great sandwiches or burritos just so I can eat the WHOLE PIE!

Billy: I should a knowed it had something to do with one of your two primal instincts!

Billy: By the Way! I been meaning to talk to you bout those three horses you sold me! That 1st one is the same durn horse that I sold you twice and now you have sold him back to me for the third time. I got so mad at him yesterday that I just got my gun and shot him!

Hill: Now why in tarnation did ya do that? All the times we sold him to each other we was making a good livin off of him!

Billy: That other horse that you told me was such a good sortin horse and a good cow horse and that could do everything so good is DARN NEAR BLIND!

Hill: Don't ya remember, I told ya he didn't look too good!

Billy: The last horse I need to talk to ya about is that one we partnered on.

Hill: Ya mean the one we paid so much money for. What the heck is wrong with him?

Billy: Well, he died last night, but don't worry, I got a plan.

Hill: What's that?

Billy: We are gonna raffle him off. I have a good picture of him and we can do a writeup and tell everybody how good of a horse he was and sell raffle tickets for $10 each. We will get our money back in time.

Hill: We can't do that! It will piss a lot of people off.

Billy: No it won't, it will only piss off the winner and we will give him his $10 back.

2009 RSNC NATIONAL FINALS — JUNE 8-13, 2009 PONCA CITY, OK

Since the announcement of the 90% payback in the four mega classes at the 2009 National Finals, the response has been tremendous. Producers all across the country, 26 states so far, have booked five show series so eager contestants in their area can get qualified. As of May 15th we have over 250 RSNC sanctioned events booked. The stage is set and plans are being made to host an unprecedented 3500+ team event. The Play Pen Arena in Ponca City, Oklahoma will be the location.

An additional 300 stalls are being shipped in to handle the onslaught of ranch sorting horses. If the cattle only knew, they would lift their tails and head for the brush. An area adjacent to the arena has been secured to allow all the room necessary for truck and trailer parking so this huge gathering of cowboys and cowgirls can spread out and even pitch a tent right there on location if they wish.

There is no better place than the Play Pen Arena for western ranching lifestyle atmosphere and contestant affordability. We are aware that there are many facilities with more amenities, but with that comes tens of thousands of dollars in more costs that are always passed on to the contestant in higher entry fees, office charges and stall costs.

We at RSNC are dedicated to making this a family oriented sport so the family can afford to participate. That is the primary reason for moving our Finals to June. Kids will be out of school for summer vacation and the whole family can enjoy the life long memories made by traveling and competing together. Stalls for the entire week will be only $50 for uncovered and $75 for covered. There are no tacked on office charges. Now we would like to address the entry fees.

At the 2008 Finals we announced the 90% payback and $100 entry fee in the four Mega Big Divisions which are the All Levels Handicap, #13 HC, #10 HC and #6w/4 Incentive. This has been received tremendously well by the hundreds of contestants that want to compete for the huge payout which that creates. We even posted examples of what 300, 400 and 500 teams would produce in paybacks. It has lit a burning fire deep down in the competitive spirit of many.

However we also have heard from others that are concerned about the affordability of the $100 entry fee for the family oriented contestant. We want you to know that we are listening. Therefore we have created an opportunity for all contestants to compete together with an Option A and an Option B in each of the Mega Big Divisions.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

Option A will be just as advertised with a $100 entry fee and a phenomenal 90% payback based on all teams entered.

Those who don't wish to pay the $100 at a 90% payback can choose Option B.

Option B will be a $50 entry fee at 70% payback based on $50 for the total number of teams in the class.

These two options give all contestants the opportunity to ride together in a huge division with a huge jackpot.

The $100 entry contestants will get a 90% payback on both the $100 entry and the $50 entry, exactly like the standard incentive works. The $50 entry contestant doesn't have to pay the additional incentive bonus but doesn't share in the additional $50 that the $100 entry contestant paid.

Either way there will be a huge jackpot to ride for, depending on your choice of entry.

PAYBACK CHART

Following is an example of teams entered with Option A ($100/man @ 90% payback) and Option B ($50/man @ 70% payback).

Example 1: All Levels Handicap

BRENHAM, TEXAS

In the rural area near Brenham, Texas, 309 teams performed at the Nueces Canyon Ranch Arena. The cattle were great. A bunch of new members were signed up. Now that is exciting. The day started out with 40 teams in the All Levels with Larry Byers and Ronnie Gebauer coming out on top. Dave Jackson won the beginner class with Thomas Bray holding the gate. Congratulations goes out to Dave as he has moved up the ladder to the Rookie Rating. Cindy Barton won the #11 Ranch Hand with husband Mike holding the gate. Fifty-seven teams were in the Masters. Good to see the senior citizens having a good time. Dave George and Van Gemmill took the winning title in the #10 with 63 teams in the class. Mandy Schoenst and David Collins won the #13. Jonathan Marquart and Edith Cook won the #11 Rookie Class. Senior Youth winners were Cody Allred and Pam Schooly. Junior youth winner was Cheyenne Hirsch with Jennifer Hirsch holding the gate. The day ended with Cody Allred and Adolf Stricker winning the #6. It was fun to see old and new faces and to bring ranch sorting to the town of Brenham. Look at the RSNC web site calendar for more shows in your area.

RSNC is signing up producers all over these 50 states. The sport of Ranch Sorting is catching on like a wild fire in a 7 year drought.

Doug Hegar, Hegar Cattle, now provides RSNC with a producer in the Four Corners area.

Doug is from Bloomfield, New Mexico. He breeds and raises both cattle and horses.

So now New Mexico, Colorado (the western slope), Utah and Arizona can have some great fun and bring the whole family.

In March Doug held his event at the Four Corners Ag Expo and the show "rocked". A lot was going on and we had the ranch rodeo folks coming over to see what this was all about. The show added over 20 new members and everyone "played" til the cows came home.

Family members from Grandpa to Granddaughter shared in the activities. Fun was had by all! Even members from the Colorado Front Range attended.

Doug's show in April was held in Farmington, New Mexico at the McGee Fairgrounds, home to the Wrangler Rodeo Finals. In addition there was a rodeo going on at the same time and once again people came over to check it out.

Hegar Cattle, Doug, will be holding shows every month through October, so check out the calendar at www.rsnc.us, or call him at (505) 320-5124.

MY MENTOR:
I'm very lucky because I have three. Each one of them teaches me something different whether it be in sorting or in life. Shelley is my trainer and friend, teaches me everything to be a successful rider.

Grandma is the one after every ride that tells me "good job," and I love that about her. Grandpa gets a little bit more excited when I ride and he is always teaching me something. In the end, I know they all love me and want me to be successful.

EDUCATION:
Ponca City Senior High School

HOW I FOUND MY HORSE:
I don't own my own horse but I am very lucky to have grandparents that love to ride. They have many horses in and out of the barn. Choosing just one horse is hard for me because I love all of our horses. I try to ride all our horses, but of course I have my favorites. Stars N Sky aka "Roxy" fits perfectly! Another favorite is Real Doodle Dandy aka "Dandy." She is my horse that always give me 110 percent.

YEARS INVOLVED WITH AMERICAN QUARTER HORSES: Four

BEST PART OF OWNING A QUARTER HORSE:
They are very versatile. I can ride them at the ranch for pleasure, to gather cattle, trail riding in the mountains or in an arena competing. Quarter Horses do it all.

FIRST HORSE MEMORY:
I don't remember the first time I rode a horse only because I was so young. Horseback riding has been a passion in my family for many generations. For most children growing up, they learn how to wiggle then crawl then walk. But for me I wiggled my way into a saddle and have stayed there ever since.

INTEREST IN OWNING A SHOW HORSE:

My great granddad, who was born in 1894, was an avid horse lover and horseman, which is where my grandfather got his love of horses, which has all been passed down to me.

HOW OWNING A SHOW HORSE HAS ENHANCED MY LIFE:

Showing horses has taught me respect. I have learned not only to respect my horses but the other riders as well.

HOBBIES AND INTERESTS OUTSIDE OF AMERICAN QUARTER HORSES:

I like to hangout with my friends. I'm also involved in my high school's KEY club, DECA and FFA. My freshman year

I started the "Forgotten Angel Project."

This project works with the elderly in the nursing homes who don't have family to spend the holiday season with. Another thing I enjoy doing is helping my grandfather work cattle. When I'm not working on the ranch I love to go to Keystone, Colorado, and skiing. If I could ski every day I definitely would.

HORSE SHOW START:

My wonderful grandparents introduced me to ranch sorting my freshman year, now I'm addicted!

HORSE PERSONALITY:

Roxy has a bit of an attitude sometimes but once we get in with cattle she loses it instantly. Dandy is my hyper, lets go-lets go-lets go- horse. Kindon "Beaver" is my laid back quiet horse.

HOW MY HORSE STANDS OUT IN THE CROWD:

They are all such hard workers, they have a job and they're ready to do it.

IF MY HORSE WAS A FAMOUS PERSON:

Dandy reminds me of the roadrunner from the cartoons.

MOTIVATION FOR THIS TITLE:

I always give it my all when I ride and this title is the result of my hard work.

CAMPAIGN MEMORIES:

My most memorable experience this past year was working at the Red Bud Classic. I didn't show, but I learned more about AQHA and the people involved. I was the "runner." It was interesting to see how other events were run. I was impressed how organized Jackie Krshka had the office. There was no confusion, everyone was in there place and were in and out of there in no time. It was truly exciting and rewarding to get to be a small part of such an awesome function.

AWARDS AND ACTIVITIES:

2007- RSNC finals, 3rd place 2008- Meeker, Oklahoma series, 1st place, Big Daddy Rodeo- won belt buckle with my uncle, Play Pen Arena took 1st place with my grandmother.

WINNING WORDS:

Riding horses is a way of life for me. I was taught if you work hard, anything is possible. My horses are not only my teammates, they are my friends. Together we make an unstoppable team.

SORTING HORSEMANSHIP TIDBITS

BY SHELLEY FITZGERALD

Ranch Sorting is fun and easy. A lot of people can sort, but if you want to get better, proper horsemanship is the beginning.

I work with a lot of beginners and amateur sorters. The basics are what we usually work on. It all sounds simple when I tell them...Kick...Sit...Stop...Pull. All these things have to happen in the right order, at the right time, and every time for it to become habit.

I was once told, it takes doing something right twenty times in a row to make it habit. If you mess up on number nineteen, you have to start all over again. I believe that, except it might be closer to fifty times in a row.

Legs

Controlling your legs is not as easy as it sounds. Some people forget they have legs when they are on a horse, or they use them to hang on with. A lot of equine disciplines require long stirrups, such as Pleasure, Trail, and Roping, but long stirrups have a tendency to keep you reaching for them all the time. Cow events typically ride with shorter stirrups. It allows you to sit deep in your saddle and get your legs in and out of your horse quickly.

Practicing dry work (working without a cow) and going through the motions you make when sorting cattle is very important. If you can't sit the stop, use cow side leg, and pull your horse's nose through the turn without a cow, it gets faster and more difficult when you add the cow.

Stop

One of the most important things when working your horse is to make sure they stop properly. You do this by kicking them to ride forward. You get your legs out of them and sit deep to make a complete stop.

It is real common for a beginner or amateur rider to squeeze to stay on through the stop and turn. This gets your horse on his front-end. It makes it harder to ride and it pushes your horse toward the cow. You lose your working advantage with the cow, and the cow will beat you or will control you.

The objective is to control the cow. Something as simple as a proper stop and making your horse do a proper 180 degree turn will slow the cow down and put you and your horse at an advantage.

Hands

A common mistake with your hands is to use them to hang on with. Remember, we are riding a horse, not a Harley. The reins are a direct line to your horse's mouth. They are not handlebars.

Almost all of our sorting horses are taught to break at the poll and be supple when you pull on the reins. If you continue to hang on the reins when your horse is doing what he is supposed to, he will lose this supple feel and become hard mouthed.

When we ask our horse to turn with a cow, we first stop them. Then with a direct rein we ask them to turn, nose first. If a horse stops and turns on a cow with his shoulder or ribcage first, that will result in a round turn and put you at a disadvantage on a cow. In other words, you will be chasing a cow when you want to be controlling a cow.

So the proper sequence to controlling a cow is to kick forward and head the cow, sit deep, get your legs out of the horse and stop. Start your turn with the direct rein and pull your horse over its hocks, nose first. Halfway through the turn, kick with your cow side leg to complete a 180 degree turn. The shortest distance between two points is a straight line. Sound simple? It is!

BUSTING AT THE SEAMS AT LINKED D COWHORSES

BY DEBBIE MCFARLAND, PALM CITY, FL

Our March show brought out 247 teams!! The April show had 217 teams. For a one day show we are Rockin'. Luckily most of the trailers rotated in and out as they either got done with their classes or came in later in the day for their upcoming class. The parking field was jam filled and overflowed into the next field for both shows! Starting a couple of hours earlier in the day helped us get done at a better hour for the April show. It is a little tougher for you all that have to travel very far for our 1st class; but it is sure nice for the beginners to get done earlier!! Our weather has been beautiful for our shows. If we can get through the next couple months without getting too hot we'll be in luck. We will be off for the summer months of June - Sept; starting back the beginning of Oct.

Our April show was very nice. The All Levels class was huge with 67 teams. We added a 2nd go round for our first time. It was a little more work for our secretary but I like the idea of having to be very consistent to win. The most consistent team; taking home Maynard Buckles and almost a $1,000 was Liz McClendon and Bryan Roberts. They won with 30 head; getting 10 head here is very rare, much less getting 10 head 3X!!! They both rode awesome. Bryan had a really good show also placing 2nd in this class and 2nd in the #14. They are both rated #4's-goes to show you that the lower #'s can not only be competitive; but big time winners in this All-Levels Handicap class. We went ahead and added $700 to this class. It paid back $954 to win! Bryan and Jimmi Philman were the reserve champs.

The points race is on for the novice riders. They are all pushing hard to lead in the point standings. So far Roy Thomas is still at the top. The next 4 or 5 people are all pretty close together. We have 4 more shows in our state before the dust settles to see who comes out on top.

Winning his last check and 1st buckle in the Beginner Ranch Hand Class at the March show was Greg Caldwell. He was also 1st and 2nd in the #4 class. Greg has moved his way up quickly. We're proud to see him doing so well. His excitement has caught on to his wife Debi. She is now taking riding lessons and has hopes of getting a horse for her birthday. Sounds like another Ranch Sorting family in the works!

Father/daughter Heather and Roy Thomas

The April show had another winner getting his 1st buckle. Dr. Luis Villar went into the finals tied for 1st and got 5 cows to win. His daughter and grandson were there to cheer him on. Luis has been making DVD's for everyone of some of our shows. He does an awesome job. It is really fun and a great learning experience to watch your rides on TV. We have enlisted him to do some more taping at our place to make some promotional and educational DVDs for the Ranch Sorting and Cutting. Luis may be the only plastic surgeon wearing cowboy boots in the surgery room! His perfectionist type personality has brought him from the ground floor on to become a buckle winning Ranch Sorter!

Close behind Luis in the beginner class were Ashton Royal and Shelby Kirton. Both of these little girls really put on a show. They both rode really well and made the beginner class quite competitive. It is really fun to ride with these kids and be a part of their growing success. As most of you know it's the kids that are tough to beat!

Our #4 class is really coming along. This last show had 23 teams. I think our 1st show only had 9 teams. I wanted a place for those just out of the beginner class to have a place with their peers (and a little lower entry fees) to compete. We have even had a few #3's recruit some beginners to ride with them. It is nice for everyone to have 2 classes to feel they can be competitive in. I think this class will remain a stepping stone for our new and upcoming riders; as well as those who only get to ride on the week-end. The husband and wife team of John and Shannon Royal won the April show. I always like to see spouses win together. They juggle a few kids and don't always get to be at the shows together. It was great to see them get in the money when they did get to ride together. Another ranch sorting family; their daughter Ashton was 2nd in the beginner class.

Another class we've recently added is the Masters. It too was slow to start. A year ago in May was our 1st time for this class and there were only 10 teams. It has grown to 25 teams at our last show. It seems to be anyone's guess who will win. The only name that

If you combine Great customers and Ranch Sorting what do you get? The answer is a lot of fun and four hundred teams in one day. Rob says our customers wanted to compete in sorting and we wanted to let them

We're looking forward to Florida's new producers "Painted Quarter Acres" in Ft. McCoy. They are putting on a couple of shows before the summer sets in. They have scheduled shows for April 18th and May 16th. With them being 3 hours to the north of us it will be a good location to pull in some of our North Florida and Georgia friends. I for one am looking forward to showing at someone else's place! We have them hooked up with some exceptional staff to kick things off and are looking forward to some fun shows. The #6 was won by Gordon Dennison and Janet Hulsey w/ Sylvia Smith and Lisa Weant in Second.

and potential producers calling. It won't be long and Florida will have a variety of RSNC shows to participate in. Hopefully Georgia will follow suit and we can develop our whole region. I think it would be fun to have a SE Regional Finals someday. That day will probably be here sooner than later at the speed the RSNC is growing.

RANCH SORTING EXPLODES IN FORT COLLINS, COLORADO

Ninety-one brand new sorters participated in ranch sorting clinics at the Colorado State University Equine Center March 21st! When asked why so big? First time RSNC Producer Chuck Peterson replied, "We promoted to the general equine communities with a vengeance." Now that sounds simple, but there was actually a plan of attack put together by Chuck and the RSNC marketing team that produced remarkable results! Before this event, Dave Wolfe sat the team down and asked them to come up with a marketing plan. The idea was to promote the sport in ways that could be duplicated by RSNC producers so the sport can grow in the same successful way all across the country. Mr. Wolfe said, "I kept thinking if we could prove right here in Fort Collins where I have been putting these events on for 15 years, that we have yet to tap into the ranch sorting market, then producers everywhere will see that the secret to getting new sorters is to quit preaching to the choir." Not only did it work, but the two instructors, Gene DeGroot and Dave Wolfe, put on two clinics each to get through the great response.

After the sorting clinic on Saturday, most came back Sunday to make the Beginners class so big that Beginners were paired up with Beginners and there were still over 90 teams in the Beginners class!

Now with over 400 current RSNC members in Colorado, producers have a great opportunity to host big successful sorting competitions.

On Saturday night, current and potential producers were invited to a producers seminar to visit and share ideas about marketing the sport. After a complimentary steak dinner grilled to perfection by Kevin Speer, the marketing team along with Chuck Peterson and Dave Wolfe, talked in detail about how the Saturday clinic and Sunday Competition was promoted. They presented ten specific promotional tools they used and discussed how other producers could do the same. Templates are being made of the fliers, news releases, internet notices, and magazine advertisements so producers can simply change dates and locations to use the same successful tools.

Phil Hartley, RSNC marketing director, said, "With so many families who want to learn more about Ranch Sorting, these tools of promotion are guaranteed to get results. We want RSNC producers to be successful and we can speak from experience when we say they will get results."

So producers if your goal is to attract more contestants, be sure to call the RSNC office to get on the list to receive a promotional DVD and templates for the 10 tools of success.

• MASTERS DIVISION

All contestants age fifty and older may enter the Masters' Division and compete for cash payouts. In addition to vying for payouts, individuals representing the Top Twenty Masters from their home state will compete for special year-end awards. These riders will enter the Finals with 20 to 1 points, respectively, in the Masters' Division. In addition to a rider's Top Twenty points, points earned in this class only will determine the winner of the Masters' Division saddle and other year-end awards.

• GRADUATED BEGINNERS' DIVISION

All contestants with a rating of 2 or less may enter as a sorter in the Graduated Beginners' Division and compete for cash payouts. In addition to vying for payouts, all 2008 Graduated Beginners as well as #1 rated Beginners representing the Top Twenty Beginners from each state will compete for special year-end awards. All Graduated Beginners will enter the Finals with no less than 10 points in the Graduated Beginners' Division. In addition to a rider's Top Twenty points, points earned in this class and the Rookie #11 RH HC Sort will determine the winner of the Graduated Beginners' Division saddle and other year-end awards. A graduated Beginners division will be a pick 4 partners, draw 1 or draw up to all 5 partners.

• GRADUATED ROOKIES' DIVISION

All contestants with a rating of 3 or less may enter in the Graduated Rookies' Division and compete for cash payouts. In addition to vying for payouts, all 2008 Graduated Rookies as well as Rookies representing the Top Twenty Rookies from each state will compete for special year-end awards. All Graduated Rookies will enter the Finals with no less than 10 points in the Graduated Rookies' Division. In addition to a rider's Top Twenty points, points earned in this class and #6/4 Incentive will determine the winner of the Graduated Rookies' Division saddle and other year-end awards.

The Graduated Rookies' Division will be a pick 4 partners, draw 1 or draw up to all 5 partners. The draws for this division will come from a pool of other 3 or below rated riders.

• NOVICE, AMATEUR, AND OPEN DIVISIONS

All Novice, Amateur, and Open riders may enter their respective classes and compete for cash payouts. In addition to vying for payouts, the Top Twenty Novice, Amateur, and Open riders from each state will compete for the year-end awards. These riders will enter the finals with 20 to 1 points, respectively. Riders graduating from Novice to Amateur or from Amateur to Open will enter the Finals with no less than 10 points. These Top Twenty points, plus points earned in respective qualifying divisions, will determine the winners of the Novice, Amateur and Open saddles and other year-end awards.

• ONE HAND SORT

This division is an All Levels Handicap but all contestants must ride with one hand on the reins. If you use two hands or switch hands at any time during the run, the team is disqualified.

• RATED YOUTH DIVISION

This division is for all youth 18 or below with a rating of 2 or higher. It will be like all other divisions with a pick 4 and draw 1 or draw up to all 5. Youth will ride with each other in this division.

• BEGINNER YOUTH/ADULT

This division is for #1 rated youth 18 or under only. This will be a Ranch Hand division where the youth sorts and an adult or upper rated contestant works the gate. It is a pick 4 and draw 1 or draw up to all 5.

• DOUBLE BACK REVERSE SADIE HAWKINS

Here is a new one for ya, how about a twist on your typical sort. How many times have you, well, mistakenly sorted in reverse order? Ok, so the announcer calls number 6. The team must sort cattle to the opposite pen and at some point start sorting in reverse order the same cattle back into the original pen. The kicker is only the cattle that are successfully sorted back to the original pen count. If the correct numbered cow starts across the line but doesn't completely clear before reversing back the other way, that cow does not count and the reverse must begin. Sound ok so far? Oh yes and we added Sadie Hawkins; please tell me you know about Sadie Hawkins. It's where the girls ask the guys to dance. Should be a mad rush for those prime male team sorters. This will be a pick 4-draw one or draw all 5. All guys that are picked at least once must enter the draw once. No guy can be picked more than 4 times.

Biggest rule for the weekend: No whining, complaining or sulking. All caught doing any of these infractions will be fined dunks into the water trough!!!! Supervised by the camp boss.

BRING YOUR STATE FLAG FOR THE STATE EXTRAVAGANZA!

It is not necessary to have attended five sanctioned shows to ride in the STATE EXTRAVAGANZA.

You must be the high point rider from your state in your rating category to qualify.

The high point Beginner, Rookie, Novice, Amateur, Open and Masters from each state will each ride twice with their five other state team members.

Your state team can choose how your six teams are entered.

The Division will be an All Level Handicap.

If a high point member does not attend, the next highest point member who attends can ride.

If no member qualifies or attends in a rating category, then the highest attending member in the next rating category down is eligible.

If a Masters does not qualify or attend, any youth attending from that state can substitute.

If a State doesn't have enough attending members for a six person team then they can combine with other states in the same situation. However the rating categories must be enforced for the assembled team

Entry fees are $50/entry with a required two ride limit. This is a prize division and prizes will be awarded through third place state teams.

Six Vinton saddles will be awarded to the winning state team.

The teams in the top 10 in the State Extravaganza All Levels Handicap Class will each receive 10 to 1 points respectively.

These points will determine the top three states who will all ride again with the same partners as before with a clean slate. (three states equaling 18 teams to the finals)

The teams in the top 10 in the Finals of the State Extravaganza will each receive 10 to 1 points respectively.

You have to get a time to get points. Those points will determine the winning....
