LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Congratulations Ranch Sorters!

On behalf of the entire RSNC staff I would like to congratulate the entire membership for a phenomenal year. Every statistic from previous years was exceeded in a big way. Sanctioned events reached almost 400. Number of states sanctioning events grew to 31. New memberships almost doubled and in fact we are averaging over 100 new members every week! The 2011 RSNC National Finals had 4093 teams even at the heels of an EHV-1 outbreak that kept some home. That can only happen when you are out there inviting new friends to the sport. Along with RSNC exposure at trade shows and media and magazine promotion of the sport we are all working as a force to bring this great sport to the forefront of equine sports. We now even have a group of 40 4H and FFA kids headed this fall to China to introduce Ranch Sorting to 3200 Chinese kids during a program called Rodeo China. All of these kids will be taking RSNC brochures and membership forms along with their RSNC Cinch shirts. Out of 9 different Rodeo activities offered, Ranch Sorting was selected as the perfect event to promote to brand new Chinese cowboys and cowgirls. That says a lot for our sport and it would not have happened without you the RSNC membership setting the example.

This years National Finals in my opinion was the best ever. Not only was the team count bigger than ever, the excitement of the contestants was at its best. This is a long week in less than perfect weather and it would be easy for tempers to flair but it simply didn't happen. Contestants were having too much fun. I assure you the positive comments about the RSNC staff and the entire production were at an all time high. That makes my job easy and I would like to thank all of you for that. It is fun to be a part of such a great group of people.

Lots of money and prizes were won and there are now many new inductees into the RSNC Hall of Fame. A special congratulation goes to Brian Blackman for being the high point rider at the Finals and to Larry Newport for attending the most shows for the year and being the high point contestant of the year. The State points race continues until December and the National points race is now a brand new race so it is perfect time to get geared up for next years finals. New ratings are out and while many were moved up and some were disappointed that their success moved them, there are also thousand of others that will now have a better chance of getting to the winners circle. The system works because the cream of the crop automatically moves up. It is solely based on success and not opinion so it is fair for everyone and our membership is extremely supportive of it.

Sincerely,

Dave Jolle

TITLE SPONSOR OF RSNC NATIONAL FINALS

4 ~ THE RANCH SORTER......JULY ~ AUGUST 2011

CINCH is A Proud Corporate Sponsor of RSNC

2011 RSNC NATIONAL FINALS "THE BIG 40"

The Big 40. NOT 40, NOT 400 But over 4,000 teams. That right the 2011 RSNC National Finals hosted 4093 teams to be exact, just as RSNC founders Dave Wolfe and Van Gemmill predicted. This is undoubtedly a winning program resulting from a winning team. When asked what the secret is they both reply almost harmoniously. Its not about the money its about providing an opportunity for contestants to have fun. When everyone has fun then everyone goes home a winner. Otherwise only a small % win and everyone else looses. It would be easy to focus only on high entry fees and big cash payouts but from past experience that becomes a game of trading money by the top few and soon the family and the weekend contestant becomes the added money. RSNC is for everyone and they have proved it every year since their start in 2007. According to Van Gemmill the big secret is just that simple. "If contestants have fun they will return." They must be having fun because the association is continuing to break their own records in attendance year after year.

This year was a little scary since we were on the heels of the EHV-1 outbreak, said Dave Wolfe RSNC president. On May 15th we already had more stalls reserved than at the conclusion of last years finals. "We were searching for temporary stalls and planning for an even more gigantic event."

However many cancellations and much contestant uncertainty about the longevity of the out break resulted in about 100 stalls less than expected. That still packed the stall capacity of the Hardy Murphy and resulted in a near perfect schedule of events. Every day was action packed with upwards of 150 teams an hour competing. Monitors were set up in every arena so riders would always know what teams were riding in the other arenas and the RSNC staff worked extra hard to keep contestants at the proper gates so no one would be turned out. As said by Jim Derrisaw a first time RSNC finals contestant, "This event could not have been better. When I got here and saw how many trailers and horses were here, I was sure it would become a marathon of round the clock events but to my surprise they pulled off a miracle by getting done every single night before 7 pm and in plenty of time for us to put away our horses and enjoy all of the fun evening activities.. I didn't win a dime but my family and I had so much fun we will definitely be back next year. My daughter said this was the most fun she has had in her life including Disney World!"

The cattle were challenging but consistent just as they should be at a National Finals with over 4000 teams. The goal of 10 head sorted remained a challenge throughout and those that reached it knew they were on their game and in the hunt. As always with RSNC those that were just plain unlucky got thrown into the Lucky Duck Class that gave them another shot at $2000 with no entry fee! That is part of the bonus perks that RSNC is always throwing at their loyal contestants and what puts icing on the cake. Just ask Randy Warner who didn't win a penny all week but went home with $1000 one dollar bills for winning the lucky duck class. Or ask Mary Ray who stuck an extra $100 in her pocket for winning the hula hoop contest.

RSNC has been working hard attracting sponsors to the sport and from the looks of it they also are doing a great job of keeping them. They had entire arenas named after their National sponsors with banners lining the sorting pens. Cinch, Priefert, Justin, Reinsman, DreamHorse and Purina were lining arenas and Merial the Title sponsor was plastered everywhere. It is obvious that sponsorship dollars are passed on to the contestants with $2000 added to the incentive of the Sadie Hawkins by Atwood Hats and $2500 added to the #8 by cinch. Additionally Justin boots gave away $7500 worth of boots and Iconoclast gave away $6000 worth of support boots. Once again Reinsman saddles were abundant with $24,000 worth of saddles passes out. Just as promised, when sponsorship dollars start to roll, they are being passed on to all contestants who support RSNC.

Not only was this years finals exciting to attend but the association went to great lengths to make sure the excitement will be shared with the world in the months to come. There were TV cameras rolling everywhere all week long. Starting on Tuesday night the super cowboy church was televised with Susie McEntire and Russ Weaver. The service was appreciated by all who attended. Then Wednesday Thursday Friday and Saturday both Aaron Ralston and All Around Performance Horse were filming for upcoming episodes that will air this fall on RFD TV. The exposure our sport will receive for this will unquestionably be phenomenal.

Friday night was a very special night with the Celebrity Sort. It was all about raising money for cancer children supported by Western Wishes. Many big name horsemen and rodeo celebrity's showed up to ride while the big hearted RSNC members jumped in to bid on the teams to raise over $7500 in just a few short hours. Hats off to everyone involved that will bring some very important wishes to some very deserving children. This is just one more example of how the members of RSNC have all become one big family. It exemplifies a supportive community with in this western lifestyle that we all are proud to be a part of. Great Job members of RSNC!

Thank You Reinsman Saddles for being a great National Sponsor and designing the Ranch Sorter Saddle!

THE SUNFLOWER STATE BECAME THE GRAND CHAMPION

States from all over the country created 102 teams to compete in the all time State Extravaganza Championship. Contestants traveled many miles to reach the RSNC National Finals in Ardmore Ok to represent their state. All State draw teams were matched up on Wednesday Evenings Finals and the results were..... "Beginners would ride with Rookies, Novices would ride with Amateurs, and Open riders would ride with Masters." This makes the draw teams equal and fair. Then the state teams started to determine what their pick teams would be. Saturday morning came, and it was time to start The STATE EXTRAVAGANZA! The competition was fierce. Just because you had the fastest time didn't guarantee a spot in the top 18 (3 states). It was what STATE team had the combined fastest times and most cattle sorted within their team. 3 teams pulled it out for the "Final Top 18". Texas, Oklahoma, and Kansas. The slate was cleaned. All three teams came back to the "Final Top 18" with 0 points. They would start over riding with the same teammate that they did before. All 18 teams sorted. No one knew who would win..... Until

CELEBRITY SORT FOR WESTERN WISHES

Friday night, July 3 in Ardmore, Oklahoma brought in some big name celebrities like Larry Mahan, Bobby Lewis, Teddy Johnson, Jim Babcock, Ross Coleman, Sean Koehler, Scott Cob, Kerry Kuhn, Trey Young, Ward Heid, Scott Mendes, Jack Kelley, Gary Wells, Jeff Storm, Jackie Dayberry and seventeen other riders which includes Kim Dorr, mother of Kaleb Dorr who was the benefactor of the event. When you look at the list of the people above, it is the who's who of the rodeo and horse world, with many of the participants going to hall of fame or already in the hall of fame in their events. One would think that Kim Dorr did not stand much of a chance to win the event since she had never done an organized sort before. To make a long story short Kim Dorr very slowly sorted her cattle against her opponents, and at the end of the night she came out the winner. Not only did she get the check for Western Wishes, she also got the winners check and a check for an autographed hat that the celebrities signed and was auctioned off after the event.

Here is why RSNC helps with events such as this. Kaleb Dorr was born with Tar Syndrome, a blood disorder that requires blood transfusions for him to live, and he was also born without any radius bone in his arms. Kaleb spent the first 75 days of his life in the hospital in intensive care getting blood transfusions. One of the side effects of Tar Sydrome is that if Kaleb falls wrong he can bleed to death internally. Three years ago Kaleb had to be taken to the emergency room and was later released. The hospital did not bill the services correctly and the Dorr's insurance denied the payment of the services. Instead of the hospital resubmitting the bill they sent the bill to collections. The collectors were hounding the Dorrs for the payment of the bill the day before they left for Admore. By winning the event, the Western Wishes check and the check they received for the hat, the Dorr's were able to pay off the bill. Kim Dorr wants to thank everyone who participated in the event, Western Wishes, and RSNC for helping take an undo stress out of the their lives.

PALM CITY, FLORIDA Wrapping up another season of Ranch Sorting

Hello! from Linked D Cowhorses. May 7th, 2011, we had the final show of our sorting season, which began in Oct. 2010. Usually May is one of our slowest months due to the heat, graduations, weddings ect. Not this year. Not even the sky high gas prices could keep everyone home! We had 205 teams competing at this show. Our weather was super nice, warm but not too hot. We showed for 11+ hours on Sat. Taking home the money in the top slots of the OPEN class was: Nicole Stinson on her new mare "ELLE", and Debbie McFarland. Nicole has hit another gear in the sorting pen with her new mount. They are a perfect match. It is really nice having Nicole and her family at our shows. Nicole comes with her husband Jay and son Chase (just now, a year old) as well as her father: Guy, and sometimes her brother Brooke. Of course all their spouses and a mother and mother in- law in there too. They are all very supportive of each other; a true ranch sorting family!

The All Levels class was topped by Roy Thomas and Mike Grier. Both Roy and Mike had a really good show. They were the two highest point earners of the day. Our fun class was an all levels ranch hand. We don't have a RH here often but, I thought it would be a good time to practice up for the finals. Danny McFarland and Coy Smith won the RH. Coming to us from the cuttin' pen, Coy had a big time learning the ins and outs of sorting. I think he had the most fun of anyone here! Chowanicka! was the word of the night for Coy: I guess it is an Indian word for having a goodtime. Right behind Danny and Coy was LaRei Grier and Gia Land. Gia is an old hand at team penning. She is also now learning the ins and outs of sorting. We're happy to have her here too! We also have a world class jumper joining us in the sortin'pen. Frankie Chesler, formerly from Canada, comes to FL. every winter for the show jumpers circuit. Frankie is a cowgirl at heart and snuck away for every show possible to come here and sort. She has fallen for ranch sorting so much that she bought 2 new horses to sort on. She has taken to sorting like a duck to water and has quickly moved up the ratings in a very short time. She is also now helping us here at Linked D with the practices and lessons and of course we like her on our sorting team too.

The #6 class was won by cousins Jason Jones and Bill Jones. Jason was mounted on his new mare; she's really cute. Bill was riding a paint gelding that I team penned on 15 years ago. It's fun to see the old war horses still at it! Not to be out done by her husband; Lorri Jones rode their new mare like a champ all the way to winning the #5 class. Lorri won with Garrett Hendry. They were a draw team! They rode great together. Garrett is holding his own being recently moved to a #3. The beginner class was late in the evening; but the contestants showed no less enthusiasium. John Bush and Tyler Smith; both new to the sortin' pens; showed the hard work they've put into practicing this past couple of months. John came out with 1st and 2nd place; taking home the trophy buckle. Johns hole help was Frankie Chesler and Mike Grier respectfully. Tyler was third place. Tyler got his buckle the next weekend at the Prine Ranch show. CONGRATS GUYS! We look forward to watching you move up thru the ranks. John and Tyler are stepfather and stepson. John's wife/Tyler's mom; Peggy also competes with us. They too are an example of what a family sport Ranch Sorting is!! Thanks to all our competitors from throughout the year. We nope you all had as much fun as we did. We look forward to an even better 2011-12; with plans to go back to double sorting pens to shorten up our shows.

Happy Sorting, Debbie McFarland

LITHIA FLORIDA

Prine Ranch Saddle Series Finals May 14, 2011

The wind whipped the tarps off the ties and stinging pelted rain poured horizontally with bolts of lightning to force riders back to the barn or trailers. Even with severe weather the enthusiasm for the saddle series finals was never diminished and after a short delay the competition resumed for the largest Prine Ranch event to date. The cooling rain quickly dropped the usually hot Florida temperature to boost the energy of both horse and cattle to accent the challenge for two Reinsman saddles. Bob Chavers held the lead for #4 and above and Tish Prine wouldn't give up easily to secure the #3 and below saddles. Linda Cirincione was overall second place for a saddle pad, Ed Parks third for engraved stirrups and Leanne Ragano fourth. Congratulations to all of the competitors for a really great year and everyone is a winner for helping create phenomenal events. All of us at Prine Ranch are looking forward to next season for another year of great friends and fun.
