Wow! What a hot summer. Trust me I am not complaining because I know if I did all of our sorters from down in the south would run me out of town on a rail. Here in Colorado we have nothing to complain about compared to what you folks have endured and we do truly feel for you. A big get well soon also goes out to all of our sorting families on the east coast after being walloped by Mother Nature's unruly daughter Irene. Our East coast producers, Greg Byers in Pennsylvania, Paul Pilnik and Jarod Ellis in New York, Larry Keith in Virginia, Todd Norman in North Carolina, and Elizabeth McClendon and Debbie McFarland in Florida are all tough cookies and we hope you and all of your members have come through it in one piece. Our contestants need you so they can compete and have fun like the rest of us.

Speaking of having fun, we certainly did it up big in Cheyenne this year. How about an unbelievable 1713 teams to break all non national finals team count records. Thanks to everyone from all over the country who showed up to have some amazing ranch sorting camaraderie and friendly competition. It truly was a great time and you won't want to miss out on next year. It only seems to get bigger and better every year. How about those State and County fairs that are taking off. Bill Entz hosted the Hydro Oklahoma fair and had over 400 teams cross the cattle ready line. Great show Bill and you die hard sorters that don't let a little warm weather scare you off. Zane and Stacy That hosted the Wyoming State Fair which was the first time that State Fair offered Ranch Sorting and for a Thursday they had a great event with almost 300 teams. The state and county fair possibilities are endless and RSNC producers are starting to take big advantage of it. It is the perfect place to attract new contestants to our sport and producers shows.

On the horizon we are excited about events that are on the calendar. We already have more booked between now and the end of the year than we did last year and in most areas the team count continues to grow. We have new producer benefits that are coming to the web site and also some cost savings on event insurance that will help the bottom line. Our producers are becoming a great fraternity of Ranch Sorting advocates that are making a huge difference by helping us all put our sport in the spot light. By the way, be sure to tune into RFD-TV starting in October! We will be on 4 different programs including, All Around Performance Horse October 13th, 16th and 18th, The Ride with Aaron Ralston October 24th and 31st, Cowboy Church with Susie McEntire, and the Ken McNabb program. We know some dates but not all of them so we will send out emails as we get them. If we don't have your email, be sure to jump on the website and email it to us. It should be good stuff and we are all excited to see our members who had fun at the finals.

The State Finals are coming up soon and many of you are setting great in the points standing. We have stream lined the tracing program so now points can be posted faster than ever before. Thanks to all of the contestants that have sent us emails letting the ladies in the office know how much you appreciate their efficiency. They are doing a great job. We now have Susie, Ashley, Valerie, Laura and Lisa all behind the scenes working hard for you and keeping the Ranch Sorting National Championships on the fast track to offering the best service possible for our dedicated producers and all the thousands of you our wonderful contestants. As I travel around the country I hope to see you at a sorting soon.

Additionally for all of you rookies that have your feet wet and want to proudly wear a champion buckle, we are giving away a buckle to the high point #2 for every show. So come and get it. It is yours for the taking!

If you have moved on up the ladder to a #3 and you really want to get serious then shoot for the stars and win a championship series saddle that will be given away to the high point number 3 of the series! This is a contest just for #3 rated contestants and no one else. We are looking forward to a great contest here!

For everyone else (#4 and above rated contestants) we are giving away another saddle! #4's will have a couple advantages with their handicap rating and the opportunity to enter more classes than upper rated riders. And as a side note the Wolfe Gang are doing all draws so come jump in the draw and we will do our best to win together!

It should be a fun fall so come to one of them or come to them all but be sure to come and join us at Wolfe Arena.

The Series dates are Sept 3rd, Oct 8th, Nov 5th and Dec 3rd with the conclusion of the series at Jefferson County Fair Grounds in Golden on New Years Weekend! There may be some rain dates posted if we should happen to get rained out.

Bring a friend and lets have some fun!!!

New ostrich styles. Boots that make a statement.

Hey Sorters,

Are there any of you out there with sore backs like me. I know there are a lot of us who have ridden for years that end up with aching backs. I happen to be one of them. I was fortunate to become acquainted with Tom Neuman of Revita Vet and let me tell you, IT WORKS! This is a ultraviolet light system that penetrates sore muscles from straining backs and it really makes a difference. It only takes a few minutes and you can start to feel it. I now have a system of my own and would recommend that you get one also if you need some help with your aching back or anything else that is sore.

It truly makes a difference.

A YOUTH WORLD

CRAWFIIN SIBLI

By Holly Clanahan The American Quarter Horse Journal

RSNC SPONSORS 2011 Youth, Open, Amatuer, And Select World Show

"Good Luck to all AQHA contestants"

2011 A QHA SELECT WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW

2011 AQHA WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW

Cydney Free wrapped her arms around her "little" brother, Corey, (who's at least a head taller than her) and said, "I love him to death. Sometimes. Unless we argue and fight ... which does happen."

Corey laughs and said, "I finally made her happy. Finally! After 16 years!"

It just took a world championship in ranch sorting at the 2011 Built Ford Tough AQHYA World Championship Show.

The two siblings, bickering aside, made a good team. Cydney, who's 19, admitted to the Journal that she does sometimes yell at her little brother when he's not paying attention, "but I push him hard because I know he can do better than what he does sometimes."

Sixteen-year-old Corey said of his sister, "She's a good rider, so I like riding with her, but it took a lot of patience to win with her. A lot."

"Thanks, little bro," came the retort.

Their horses are a less contentious subject.

Corey rode Skeezixs Streak, a 19-year-old grandson of Smart Little Lena who has an interesting back story.

"We've had him for a long time, and he's my mom's horse," Corey said. "He had foundered when he was 4 or 5, and he was in a stall for 13 months without going out into the pasture. They said that she would never be able to ride him again, and my mom nursed him back to health, and I just won the world on him, so that's a pretty cool story.

"And I believe this is the last year I'm going to ride him. I think I'm going to pasture him out after this. This is a good one to go out on."

Cydney's mount was Heza Peppy Fitz, a 14-year-old grandson of Doc Bar who holds two reserve youth world championships, in ranch sorting and team penning.

Skeezixs Streak also previously won a reserve youth championship in team penning, and Corey, aboard a different horse, won the AQHYA world championship in ranch sorting in 2010, competing with a different partner, Jennifer Vesbach.

That was Jennifer's last year in youth, and this year is Cydney's last at the Ford Youth World. So what's Corey going to do for a partner next year?

"I don't know what I'm going to do," he said. "I don't have any more partners. I've got to find me a few. I might pick 'em up off the side of the road or something. That's going to be tough (to find one as good as his sister)."

Cydney promised that she'll be rooting him on.

"I'm going to support my brother all the way. I'm going to help him and come watch him every year," she said.

The siblings from Port Allen, Louisiana, thanked their parents, Robin and Renee Free for the years of strong support.

And they also thanked Megan Walsh, and Gary and Micki Rogers, who let them stay at their home in Oklahoma this week and practice.

The ranch sorting class at the Ford Youth World saw 65 qualifying teams.

July 16, 2011 Crossfire Arena Tommy Roberson Article and pictures by Owen Lyon

What do you do when its 107 in the shade and you want to Ranch Sort?

Well in North Texas, we took naps and saddled up at sunset for an evening RSNC sorting event at Crossfire Arena. Tommy Roberson recognized that the extended heat and humidity was stressful on not only the riders but the horses so he adjusted his event start times. The event started at 7pm and through the night 213 teams competed. As the heat continues, the next event, which is scheduled for August 6th, has also been scheduled to begin at 7pm (books open at 6pm). The staff Crossfire Arena thanks everyone who attended and made our July show a success and welcomes RSNC riders and fans to join us for our August show in Whitesboro Texas.

BANCH COBTING BIBLE CAME

The first Ranch Sorting Bible Camp was held July 27th in Cheyenne, WY.

We advertised for youth ages 8-18 and were praying for 20 riders to attend. God is so good, He gave us 22 riders for the camp. All in attendance had a fun filled and

It all started with registration and breakfast at 7 AM. The sorting clinic began at 10AM. with Ken McNabb as our guest clinician. Ken, along with his wife, De De helped the riders learn basics about horsemanship. At noon we were entertained by the Thunderbirds as they did their air show for Cheyenne Frontier Days. What an

After the Thunderbirds show, we had our chapel service. Barry Ward, Flying W Productions, ministered through music and Harold Daniels ministered through God's Word. Five campers raised their hands to pray and accept Jesus Christ as Savior! Ten others including several adults re-dedicated their lives to Christ.

After chapel and lunch the riders practiced their sorting skills under the watchful eyes of Ken, and Dave Wolfe. We then had their finals and awarded buckles to the winners. Reins and halters were given to everyone who participated.

We believe everyone had a fun day, met new friends and are excited about being a part of our next Ranch Sorting Bible Camp.

If you would like more information about the Bible Camp and how to get involved please call me, Harold Daniels 719-330-0878.

Blessings,

Record Breaking Attendance - Ranch Sorting Clinics and Ken McNabb

The 11th annual Big Daddy Summer Spectacular was a sensational event. Ranch Sorting National Championships hosted a total of 48 students that attended the Ken McNabb clinics and had an impressive turnout of 1,713 teams making the 11th annual Big Daddy Summer Spectacular another record breaking event for RSNC.

Ken McNabb an internationally known horseman, hosted an full-day youth sorting that included horsemanship, cowboy church, and bible camp for 23 eager and energetic youngsters. Kids from ages 7 to 18 of different riding levels spent the day learning about horsemanship, ranch sorting, and sharing Christian Fellowship. Buckles were given away during the clinic to competition winners. To end the camp each young person received lots of prizes to take home for participating in the clinic. Haley Pavlick of Parker, Colorado was one of the youth that attended and detailed her Ken McNabb clinic experience.

"At the Ken McNabb clinic at Cheyenne was one of the best clinics I have ever been too. We started the day with some horsemanship practice. We flexed our horses and got them prepared to make a turn and a stop. We spent a few hours doing that and then we went inside and took a lunch break. During our lunch break we had a church session. After church we started back up with sorting. We each ran about 10 times with different people, and were critiqued on what we did. After we practice we had a competition with each other and the team that got first won a buckle. From this experience I learned that doing slow work and setting your horse up for a stop and turn is better than just doing it fast, and not thinking about what you really need to do. Some things that I liked were the slow work and getting my horse set up to do what I want him to do. It was good for my horse to do that stuff since he is knew at sorting. I also liked the church session because it was good to just sit down and remember why we're here, and enjoy being with friends and family, while doing something that I love. The Ken McNabb clinic was great, and I would definitely do it again."

The half-day adult sorting clinic had 25 adults in attendance to learn more about horsemanship and ranch sorting. Ken worked exceptionally well with the group and showed techniques that made perfect sense in relation to improving in Ranch Sorting. Overall, it was a great experience by all who attended the clinics and we appreciate Ken McNabb sharing his time and talent with the Ranch Sorting National Championships organization. RSNC sanctioned ranch sorting began on Wednesday evening with AQHA shows with double pens for open, amateur, and youth divisions. Thursday, afternoon officially kicked off the beginning of the 3 ½ days of exceptional ranch sorting competition. There were people as far away as Wisconsin who wanted to get the full Cheyenne Frontier Days experience with ranch sorting. The mild days and cool evenings were an oasis for all the southern contestants who have been enduring record-breaking heat.

Thank you to all those who attended this great event and we look forward to seeing you at the next Ranch Sorting National Championships event.

ALL SUPPORT IS NOT CREATED EQUAL

There are 32 ligaments and tendons in the lower equine leg. For years polo wraps and splint boots have been used in an effort to protect horses against impact in this region, however, they offer your horse very little support.

Utilizing our revolutionary Double Sling Strap® system, the Iconoclast® Equine Support Boots are specifically designed to provide true 360-degree support to your horse's lower limb. Iconoclasta Boots are endorsed and prescribed by leading equine veterinarians around the world to protect against and even rehabilitate injuries caused from hyperextension.

ANY HORSE

ANY DISCIPLINE

"The Iconoclasta Equine Support Boot offers more effective sesamoidial stability & suspensory support than any other product I've encountered.

I prescribe them to my clients with complete confidence and satisfaction in caring for their equine partners."

*DEALER INQUIRIES WELCOME

Being a sponsor of the RSNC, I was invited to attend the Finals in Ardmore, Ok. I was completely surprised and impressed with the overall mood. I saw smiles and laughter coming from every corner of the complex. It was hot as blazes, in fact I saw a dog chasing a cat and they were both walking. I understand there were 4000 plus entries for the finals and every person I saw was doing their best to take proper care of their horses. Every age group and level of rider was present. The RSNC is one of the best managed organizations I have had the privilege of being a part of.

As a sponsor, our interest is to be sure our efforts are being welcomed and needed. I found both concerns answered in full. Our Iconoclast boots are all about "proper" care and support of the horse. We look every day to find opportunities to share our expertise and knowledge of the horse. Preserving the health and welfare of the horse during competitions such as this is paramount. I could not stress enough how important it is to pay close attention to the legs of your horse. Your horse deserves to have the best of care at all times if you want them to carry you to any level of leisure or competition. The Iconoclast boots will provide the support needed to stay sound through the riggers use. Our boots were designed specifically to support the sesmodial (fetlock) region of the equine leg. Injury occurs when either hyper-extension or fatigue causes the soft tissue to fail. As horse owners we need to have the right tools to keep our horses safe. As we know from our past, a splint boot, medicine boot, sport boot, or leg wrap will offer no beneficial support to the soft tissue of the leg. If they did we would not have the concerns we do today.

Iconoclast is veterinarian approved for "Proper Support" of the equine leg. Next time you ride your horse, look him over and you decide if it's worth saving his legs. You can buy our boots by contacting the RSNC or www.westernlegacysales.com

Thank you to all RSNC members and staff

For the membership of RSNC, we at Atwood Hat Co. would like to offer black and chocolate 5X hats that retail for $215.00 for 174.95 and buckskin, traditional silverbelly that retail for $240.00 for $200.00. If you want a 4 1/2 or 5 inch brim, add $5.00. These hats are available in Low Crown, Regular Crown, Open Crown or Square Top. We are also offering the 4X black for $135 for a 4 inch brim and $140 for a 4 1/2 inch brim. RSNC has been very good to us and the members have always been friendly and welcoming to their events. These hats are 100% rabbit fur and hand crafted as are all of our felt hats. I hope this discount is helpful to the membership of RSNC.

MARTINES DAY CHARILY LVLVI WOLFE ARENA, WELLINGTON CO

What beautiful weather we had in Wellington, CO the weekend of May 7 & 8. It is always so nice to sort under those gorgeous Colorado skies with a view of the Rocky Mountains, and it certainly helped make the 1st Annual CTEC Charity Sorting a huge success.

Cheyenne Therapeutic Equestrian Center (CTEC) is a non-profit that provides therapeutic riding for disabled veterans and children in Southern Wyoming and Northern Colorado. This organization caught our eye when Kati Helfrich (owner and reason CTEC exists) came to Hansen Performance Horses to watch her mom take a sorting lesson. After some convincing, Kati decided to try sorting and now it is one of her favorite things to do! The seed for the charity event was planted and a very special thank you to everyone that helped bring it to fruition, especially Wolfe Productions-for letting us put on the event during one of their RSNC shows, Sam's Club, RSNC, Ellen Bryant Designs, Wayne's World Photography (and all our many other sponsors and contributors). Funds raised at the event were used for CTEC's scholarship fund to help deserving children ride in spite of their family's inability to pay for the lessons.

The Charity Beginner class kicked off the 2 day show with 87 teams, many who were new to RSNC and rode to support CTEC. Hansen Performance Horses sponsored the charity event and provided the buckles and other awards for the beginner class winners. . Over $3000 was raised from the beginner class, silent auction, concession stands and a pledge sort with Kati and CJ. This is the largest single fund raiser in CTEC history!!!!

With 400 teams riding over the 2 days, the show itself was a blast!!! Congrats to all the Winners!!!
