LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Hello 2012. Here we come!!!

Are you ready for the news that just might make each of you more excited than any Christmas present you just received!!! We are moving to the BIG CITY!!!! As in Oklahoma City!!!! As in the elite equine family in the county!!!! As in lots of stalls, lots of RV spots, lots of arenas and certainly not the least as in AIRCONDITIONING!!

But that isnt all. We have been invited to join the prestigous Quarter Horse event “battle in the saddle”. The American Quarter Horse Association hosts the exciting event to showcase the Quarter Horse in a variety of events like cutting, team roping, barrels, versatility ranch horse mounted shooting and now Ranch Sorting.

Alex Ross of AQHA made a specific trip to our finals last year to see what all the buzz was about and he was so impressed that we immediately began working on plans to put it all together. There is no question that our sport will immediately become the leader in the battle in the saddle competitions. What a perfect way for us to showcases our sport to all these other disciplines!

There has been many details worked out but many more to fine tune. As always we will want to create a schedule that is contestant friendly so you can enjoy your week in the big city. There is lots to do there including a battle in the saddle finals competition that shows off the best of the best. Just think, that may be you in our sport!!!

I hate to use up all of our good news in just one magazine but it is coming from every direction and we have to let you know. Within this issue are details of our four regional Super Sorts! Anyone can attend any or all of them but only contestants within the respective regions are eligible for the high point prizes. We are thrilled to be giving away Todd Jeys custom saddles! These are not just another saddle. They are what the best riders in the country are lining up to buy. Once you see them you will want one, so make plans to come win one. It’s all about quality leather works so we thought it only appropriate to also be giving away some top of the line Justin Boots. Something we all need and can enjoy for years.

In the last few months our phones have been busy visiting with many new producers all across the country. We are excited to have many new states on board with RSNC sanctioned events. That brings more competition and more new friend to the sport. Be sure to check out the calendar for all of the new events.

If you are familiar with the rodeo industry you will surely have heard about the Flying U Rodeo Company and its founder Cotton Rosser. I had the pleasure of meeting Mr Rosser recently and telling him about our association. To say the least he was impressed and, being the promoter that he is, quickly asked how he could help. It took me about two seconds to throw some ideas together and get the ball rolling. I could not be more excited to team up with the Flying U Rodeo Company for a West Coast Series that will be phenomenal. It will start in Carson City Nevada and culminate with a big finals late in the fall. It is an honor to have such an iconic promoter helping us introduce our sport to the rodeo industry and to ranch sorters throughout the Western US.

Be sure to check with your state fair to see if we will be hosting a RSNC Fair event. We are signing up lots of fairs across the country. It s the perfect way to bring the family to the fair and win a state fair buckle!

There are now many new State Champions wearing those great looking Cripple Creek vests. Congratulations to each of you for a great year. All you need now is some new Justin Boots, a Maynard buckle and hopefully a Todd Jey saddle!!! They are all ripe for the picking so start making plans now to go get ya one!!!

Its time to get excited for the year ahead!

OKC here we come!!!

Sincerely,

Wow! What a day! The weather was great, cattle were awesome, sorters were on their game and tens were cheap. To get a check you had to be fast and focused. In ALHC Harold Waite and Rafael Cisneros turned in a smoking 24.85 on ten with their HC. That set the tone for the day and it was fast and furious.

Super sorter Rodi Torres and his grandfather Randy Main dominated the competition as they won the Rookie RH and the #10 HC classes. Randy teamed with daughter Sandy to win the #6. Rodii also won the #4 with Becky Curl. Sixto collected four 2nd place checks to round out the day. Awesome day guys! Joe Vela and Pete Gilman won the ALHC and Bobby Sparks and Joe Rodriguez won the Masters to round out the day. A huge thank you to Purina Mills for sponsoring this event. That good Purina feed is obviously working well for these high performance sorting horses. All in all it was a great day and we are all looking forward to the South Texas State Finals at Robstown, Tx on January 21, 2012. Hopefully it will be relatively warm there. Ya'll come sort with us.

This charity event was held by Producers Walt Booth (Castle Rock) & Ric Noring (Cactus Creek) on November 12, 2011 at Douglas County Fairgrounds in Castle Rock, Colorado. The producers and volunteers did a tremendous job of getting the word out to existing members and equestrian riders who had never competed in a Ranch Sorting Event. There were a total of 264 teams that rode and had a great time! This event was overall a success even given it was a first time event in Castle Rock and had computer issues at start-up. Producers express great appreciation for your patience during this maiden voyage event. "Saddle Up for St. Jude's" set a goal to raise $2500. At the time this article was sent, RSNC had not made the financial goal, however, did meet the goal of supporting St. Jude's. Special thanks goes to the Cherry Valley Renegades 4-H Club, FFA group, the Boy Scout Troops for providing concessions, horse care and general all around customer satisfaction at the event. Also, for all the volunteers that went above and beyond to help with the show we, thank you for donating your time for a important cause. Thank you to our amazing sponsors who helped make this event successful: BeefDirect2U.com, Rockyard American Grill and Brewing Company, IMI, Best Western – Castle Rock, Wrangler, Boulet, Cactus Creek Ranch, RSNC, VetLink, Murdoch's, Matthew Fry State Farm, 4-H, FFA, Braveheart Samoyeds, Wall Evolution, Riverbend Equipment, Triple D Ranch, Cathy Croley, Colleen McKinney, and Greg Balen.

List of Winners:

- Youth Class-Kody Ward
- Beginner RH-Wren LeVan
- Beg/Rookie RH-Leslie Gale and Richard Singhas
- #6 HC-Cheryl Jett and Haley Pavlick
- #12 Masters HC-Pat Nieman and Mike O'Brien
- #10 HC-Justin Riley and Kason Wolfe

Speciality Awards – Awards were given out to each class from sponsors and donations through random drawings or placings. Trophies were provided to all youth riders donated from Triple D Ranch.

The Goal of St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital
The goal is to help St. Jude's continue its current success rate, not only in the area shown below, but all areas of the services that they pursue.

This event is significantly more far reaching than the kid's in need. St. Jude's assist's kids that are not known to be in need, family unity, community involvement for kid/s and their families, equestrian excellence, support of Agriculture and of course once again proves that... "Corporate America still supports the grass roots efforts that make this country strong."

St. Jude's Diagnosis Survival Rate

- Acute lymphoblastic leukemia (ALL), most common form of childhood cancer 94%
 - Hodgkin lymphoma (cancer of the lymph system) 90%
 - Medulloblastoma (a type of brain tumor) 85%
 - Wilms tumor (kidney tumor) 90%
- For more information visit <http://www.stjude.org>

Again, we cannot thank everyone enough for coming out to ride and supporting Saddle Up for St. Jude's Children's Hospital.

RSNC - Regional Super Sort Time!

The explosive 2012 Ranch Sorting National Championship season is ramping up all across the country as sorters begin looking forward to the brand new RSNC Regional Super Sort events. The Regional Super Sorts will become a huge attraction to the sorting family with a great prize line and lots of great sorting action. The RSNC is looking forward to this year's Regional Super Sort Events and a chance to spread the taste of the fabulous RSNC National Finals all across the country.

This years four Regional Super Sorts events will offer sorters of every caliber a chance to compete and drop their name into the winners pages of the RSNC. In addition, the event will carry the RSNC into the end of the season as sorters begin to turn their attention towards the National Finals event on the Fourth of July week in Oklahoma.

The first of the four events will kick off in Wichita Falls, Texas at the South Central Regional Super Sort. The first of this year's Regional Super Sorts action will play out on February 10-12, 2012 at the J. S. Bridwell Ag Center, an open door for some of the toughest sorting action of the year. Sorters can then look forward to the Eastern Regional Super Sort action on March 30 through April 1, 2012 in White Pine, Tennessee. This event will take place at the Walters State Great Smokey Mountain Expo Center and offer up some of the great Regional Super Sort action to competitors in the Eastern area of the country. In April, the North Central Regional Super Sort will be hosted in Loveland, Colorado at The Ranch on April 6 through 8, 2012. Always a great event at a great venue, this is sure to be another grand event for the RSNC and all of the North Central sorters. From there, the RSNC will head to the Carson City Fairground in Carson City, Nevada on April 20 through 22, 2012 for the Western Regional Super Sort. This will wrap up this years Regional events and allow sorters to set their sights to the RSNC National Finals Championship event in Oklahoma.

The RSNC has already topped records this season as more and more newcomers are riding their way toward winning inside RSNC events all across the country. The Regional Super Sort Events will keep things going strong as many of these first timers, as well as veterans of the sport are gearing up to be part of the RSNC action. To make things even bigger and better, the RSNC is packing the Regional Super Sort events with lots of prizes. With affordable entry fees, Todd Jeys trophy saddles up for grabs, as well as Justin boots, RSNC trophy Jackets or Iconoclast boots and many Maynard Buckles, sorters will have a chance to win and win big.

Each of the four Regional Super Sorts events will host classes for everyone with all of the goodies and treats expected by the leading ranch sorting association, RSNC. Each event will host a total of 14 different classes for sorters to compete in. On each of the Friday performances, the RSNC will host the AQHA Sorting Open, Am and Youth as well as the All Levels class, #12 Handicap, and #4. On Saturday, each Regional Super Sort will host a #14 Ranch Hand, Rookie #11 Handicap, Masters #10 Handicap, #6 and a Youth Beginner/Class. Each event will wrap up on Sunday with more 60% payout classes. These will include the Sadie Hawkins, #11 Handicap, #11 Ranch Hand Handicap and the #8 Handicap. Following the Sadie Hawkins class each Sunday will be the Beginner Sort which is one of the biggest classes in our sport. Each days sorting action will begin at 9 a.m. with books opening an hour before at each Regional Super Sort. Sunday morning events will kick off with Cowboy Church at 8 a.m. Each of the Regional Super Sorts events will host the RSNC format of a 5-ride limit and sorters can pick up to 4 partners with one draw, or draw up to all 5 partners. Sorters who pick at least one partner must draw one as well.

In addition to the big money awarded to winners at the Regional Super Sorts events, there will be plenty of prizes up for grabs as well. The RSNC is awarding saddles to the Highpoint #2 and under champion, Highpoint #3 & 4 sorting champion and the #5 and above Highpoint champion. Reserve winners will be awarded Justin boots. RSNC Trophy jackets or Iconoclast boots will be awarded to the champions throughout the weekend. These include winners of the All Levels sort, #12 Handicap, #14 Ranch Hand, Masters #10, Sadie Hawkins, #11 Ranch Hand Handicap and the #8 Handicap. Sorting champions in the #6, #4, #11 Rookie Handicap, Youth Beginner and Beginner classes will be awarded championship trophy buckles.

As the 2011/12 season rolls towards the Regional Final Super Sorts, the RSNC will continue to offer their free membership program to keep new faces heading into the sorting pens. Additionally, the Regional events will help qualify sorters for the RSNC sort for the saddles challenge and the RSNC National Finals.

Sorters need to be sure to practice up and be prepared for this year's Regional Super Sorts action. The winning will be abundant and the excitement will be second to none. The RSNC is preparing for great turnouts at each of these events and looking forward to continuing the great season. They are already on tap to top last years mark in number of members, overall cash and prize payout and the exciting growth of the sport of ranch sorting. So climb aboard, enter up and sort your way towards your share of this year's RSNC championships at one or more of the RSNC Regional Super Sorts!

THE FIRST OF FOUR

Sorting Texas style, the first of this year's RSNC Regional Super Sorts will land in Wichita Falls, Texas on February 10-12, 2012. Sorters will find Wichita nestled in the North East corner of the Panhandle/Plains area of North Texas opening the door for sorters from all across the great states of Texas, Oklahoma, Missouri, Louisiana and Arkansas to participate in one of this year's most anticipated and biggest events. The RSNC will open things up at the J. S. Bridwell Ag Center with lots of money and prizes on hand to be awarded. There will be 60% payouts in many classes, 50% payout in the beginner and youth classes. In addition, there will be saddles, jackets, boots and buckles given to this year's top riders throughout the event. The South Central Regional Super Sort is the first on the list of four Regional events across the country allowing sorters in Wichita Falls to have a chance at these grand prizes and great sorting fun.

By most accounts Wichita Falls can be summed up with two words, pleasant and comfortable. This will be a welcoming sight for sorters who take the quest to be at the South Central Regional Super Sort. Even with a population of approximately 104,000+, the city is family oriented and a great place to spend a weekend. Not only will the sorting action be fun and exciting, the visit to Wichita Falls will offer a relaxing and fun time outside the arena walls.

Wichita Falls offers considerable cultural activities from the symphony to good old Texas rodeos events. Wichita Falls prides itself on having something for everyone. Sorters can also enjoy the Wichita Falls ballet troupe, museums, community theaters featuring everything from Shakespeare to rock concerts, professional hockey, skate park, municipal golf course, college football and basketball, festivals and fairs, family entertainment centers and nearby lakes and mountains. Wichita Falls offers year-round entertainment and activities that are guaranteed to keep you and your family as busy as your schedule will allow.

The City has a wonderful thirteen mile long trail system that winds through neighborhoods, but if you are like a lot of vistors, you will want to see the spring that lends to the city's name. In that case, you can head to, "The Waterfall." This 54 foot man-made falls, completed in 1986, replaced the original falls that washed away more than 100 years ago. Visitors can enjoy miles of landscaped, lighted, all-weather walking trails. Lined with benches, the paths wind along the Wichita River from the Falls to the beautiful 170-acre Lucy Park, complete with log cabin, pavilions, pool, duck pond and Lucy Land Playground.

During the weekend of the RSNC event, the Wichita Falls Symphony Orchestra will present guest artists The Texas Tenors to the stage. The event will take place on February 11, at 8 p.m. at the Memorial Auditorium at 1300 Seventh Street, in downtown Wichita. If you are not one to sit and enjoy a symphonic musical, maybe you would rather try your luck at a casino table game or hit the slots at one of two casinos in Wichita Falls. The Comanche Red River Casino offers 1,150 slots, 12 table games including Texas Hold'em, Blackjack and Craps. Along with the casino, you can enjoy the Red River Lounge, Oasis Grill and other casino entertainment. The Kiowa Casino offers 960+ slot machines, 20 game tables including Texas Hold'em, Blackjack, Spanish 21 and Diceless Craps. The Kiowa also offers plenty of entertainment and dining including the Morning Star Steakhouse, Buffet & Winner's Circle Bar & Grill.

Wichita Falls offers plenty of nightlife attractions as well. From a neighborhood hotspot, to the most up-do-date dancehall and bar, you are sure to find your favorite. The Bar-L has been a local favorite for over 50 years! They offer some of the best barbeque in the area and have become famous for their ribs. Denim and Diamonds is one of Wichita Falls newest and most complete country and western dance clubs. Above nightclubs Wichita offers even more in the way of great restaurants. From American food favorites, mexican food, barbeque, local flavors, bar & grill and steak and seafood, the local dining is second to no other mid-sized city in America.

Getting away from the action inside the RSNC arena, sorters can take in the sights of Wichita Falls and visit any of the cities great museums including the Wichita Falls Railroad Museum Open Saturdays Noon-4 p.m. Visitors can step aboard vintage trains and take a trip back in time to learn about the history of the railroads that once ran through this area. The Depot Square Antique District offers six city blocks centered around the Farmer's Market. It is a journey back through time to include a visit the many amazing antique malls and stores, then there is always lunch at one of the local favorites. Visitors can also enjoy the Memorial Auditorium. Built in the late 1920's, the last area Indian battle was fought only 10 years before on the bluff where the Memorial Auditorium now stands. In the early days, Will Rogers chewed gum, twirled ropes and performed on the stage along with Al Jolsen, Louis Armstrong, Elvis Presley, Duke Ellington, Ethel Barrymore, Helen Keller, Gene Autry and Bob Hope who has all graced the stage with their presence. Finally, visitors will have a chance to see what North Texas is all about at the Museum of North Texas History. The Museum strives to collect items and present exhibits that preserve and interpret the history of North Texas.

The RSNC is excited to bring sorters to Wichita Falls for the first of four Regional Super Sorts. Not only will the action inside the J. S. Bridwell Ag Center be exciting, sorters will have a chance to enjoy a great city, tucked into the corner of Texas that offers access to many different areas of the country. For local Texans to surrounding states, the South Central Regional Super Sort will be an event sorters will not want to miss!

AQHA PARTNER ALLIANCE – DUAL QUALIFYING SHOW INFORMATION FINALLY...DUAL QUALIFYING SHOWS AQHA & RSNC!

Exciting news for ALL RSNC members wishing to earn AQHA points on their Quarter Horse! With the new Partner Alliance with AQHA, producers can now co-sanction the Open and Youth Divisions. This will give you the opportunity to qualify and earn points in both associations in the same class. Starting January 1, 2012, with sanctioning approval from both associations, producers can now offer a RSNC All Levels Class and those wishing to earn AQHA points can designate their AQHA team to earn AQHA points at the same time. The AQHA Amateur class must be separate but the same co-sanctioning opportunity exists for the Youth class. The one minute time limit of the 1st round will determine the AQHA placing and the second or consecutive rounds will determine the RSNC placing. This allows the producer to draw contestants from both organizations and allows contestants to save money while qualifying for the huge payouts at the RSNC National Finals and the AQHA World Show Finals. Until rules are unified AQHA rules will be followed on co-sanctioned classes. AQHA does have 120 day application deadline so be sure to plan now and contact AQHA (806) 376-4811.

With AQHA Partner Alliance Status the 4 RSNC Regional Super Sorts and RSNC National Finals will be Double AQHA point classes giving everyone a huge head start on their qualification process. This is a win/win for all involved and especially for the sport of Ranch Sorting.

If you have questions, contact the RSNC office at: info@rsnc.us or 970-897-2901.

Judges Testing

To all RSNC members and producers.

Upon request of the membership, RSNC will now require all judges to pass a judge's exam before judging/flagging RSNC events February 1st and beyond. The exam is now available to all producers for distribution to the judges of their choice. Once the test is taken the judge must return it to the RSNC office email: info@rsnc or fax: 970-897-2921.

All current judges who pass the exam will be listed on the RSNC web site as approved RSNC judges. This assures the producer and membership that judges are familiar with the rules and standard of conduct at all RSNC events.

Furthermore all judges wishing to receive recommendation from RSNC to become an AQHA Special Event Judge must be on the current RSNC Judges list.

Woodland, CA

The Historic Nelson Ranch RSNC ranch sorting started off with beautiful weather that turned to rain mid day and then wind finishing out with a sunny lovely day. The sorters were tough and dedicated and took cover under the trees. Just as we were getting ready to move the event indoors the rain stopped. A second set of pens was available for sorters to practice on a herd at no charge. The arena stayed in great shape and the flagger Nick did an outstanding job all day. Teresa Canada kept the event rolling. The cattle were great and payouts awesome. There was great food with John's special tri tip sandwiches with grilled onions and baked beans. The fun was watching the kids participate and have a good time. We all have to do the best with our kids and having an event where all family members can participate makes it fun and lets them enjoy themselves while being around the cowboy lifestyle. This imparts confidence and good values that was reflected in the big smiles. Jackpots paid out $2735.

We are getting ready for the series finals . There are 132 sorters qualified for the California Series PEDRO LIZAMA is leading the Open, Amateur is held by Conrad Stitser, followed by WENDY WEDEMEYER and DANIELLE QUINN, Top 3 in Novice is being lead by Richard Evans, followed by Billy Grissom and Joe Sanford, Rookie 2 is being lead by Cody Evans, followed by Tandra Evans and then Suzanne Marsh, Beginner is currently lead by Nancy Boswell and second is tied between Mike Grider and Kathy Hayden and then Deana Drake . Riders must show at 5 out of 11 events to qualify for high points between the Historic Nelson Ranch, Wedemeyer Ranch and Golden States Horseshows. Awards will be given out in December at the Historic Nelson Ranch. Hide on headstalls to first, Reins to second and special awards to third and fourth.

RANCH SORTING HEADS INTO THE RODEO ARENA

and cowgirls. Rosser and the RSNC is excited about this venture and looking forward to bringing the sport to a whole new audience.

"I thought the RSNC did a great job at their Ranch Sorting event at the Cow Palace, using two arenas, along with the large number of entries, I thought it was great and it welcomed horse people to have fun," said Rosser. "I think it (Ranch Sorting) is attractive to new people. Ma's, Pa's and the whole family can enjoy ranch sorting and help keep the West alive. I also think it will bring new people to rodeos and let others see what ranch sorting is all about. We have to work out a few details to make it work in the time frame of the rodeos, but I am glad to help the RSNC and ranch sorting."

The RSNC looks forward to this opportunity as well. Not only will it open the gates for more sorting action along the West Coast, but the chance to show the sport off to many new potential sorters is one more great way to help the continued growth of the sport.

"The opportunity to have such an iconic promoter of the western lifestyle to promote Ranch Sorting is phenomenal," said RSNC President Dave Wolfe. "It is an honor to have Cotton Rosser recognize the fun and excitement Ranch Sorting is bringing to horse owners everywhere."

With Rosser bringing ranch sorting to a new arena, who knows where it will stop. As a professional, well respected stock contractor who has made significant changes to the professional rodeo scene throughout the years, his influence can carry lots of weight to other contractors across the country who are looking to bring new and exciting events to their events as well. Not only does Ranch Sorting offer a unique and exciting addition to the rodeo floor, many spectators can ultimately head home ready to try their hand at sorting. With RSNC's format of free memberships that welcome newcomers, plenty of classes for them to compete in and a classification system that keeps the excitement of sorting fun and enjoyable, the prospect of reaching these new, vast audiences is awesome.

Sorters on the West Coast and those in the Western states will have the first chance to shine under the rodeo spotlight. Rosser and the RSNC are working on a special event format that offers sorters a chance to not only compete for great payouts and prizes in the RSNC classes, but compete during the rodeo performances as well. Both Rosser and the RSNC have high hopes the action will not only give each event a new and exciting look, but open the door for many more events to follow in suite in other areas of the country. You can watch for more details on these new events soon.

The name Cotton Rosser goes hand and hand with the world of professional rodeo. With more than fifty years as one of the best professional rodeo stock contractors in the business and producer of some of the largest and most prestigious rodeos in the West, Rosser and his Flying U Rodeo family have made history inside the sport. As one of the old-timers of the stock contracting business, Rosser has always been on the cutting edge of entertainment in the rodeo arena. His flamboyant style of production, along with some of the best stock in the business has allowed him to stand above the rest keeping alive the great wild west action inside the arena. In addition, Rosser has been an influential part of professional rodeo. As a member of the PRCA (Professional Rodeo Cowboys /Association) board, he has helped form the sport throughout the years, which by all accounts has stood the test of time and continued to grow throughout the years. His hand in his events, as well as the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo in Las Vegas, Nevada has been substantial and certainly they would not be where they are today with out his leadership.

If you have ever had the chance to attend a Flying U Rodeo produced event or see some of the opening acts at the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo, RodeoHouston at the Houston Livestock Show or the Grand National Rodeo in San Francisco, you have seen a glimpse of the entertainment showcase of Rosser and his production company. No doubt, Rosser holds the true spirit of the Wild West close to his heart which he easily transformed into the world of rodeo. "I have been in the rodeo business for 56-years this year and trying to keep rodeo and the western lifestyle alive in California," Said Rosser just after returning from this year's Wrangler National Finals in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Cotton and his wife, Karin, live near Marysville, California and along with their family, their lives revolve around professional rodeo. The spirit and showmanship of the West is alive and well in the form of Cotton Rosser and he is truly one of the greats in the sport of rodeo. He continues to keep the American Cowboy spirit alive. This is ever apparent at the events he works with. These include such great rodeos as the Red Bluff Roundup in Red Bluff, California, The Reno Rodeo in Reno, Nevada, The Grand National Rodeo in San Francisco, California and the Oakdale Saddle Club rodeo in Oakdale, California just to name a few. He has a full schedule of PRCA (Professional Rodeo Cowboy Association), PBR (Professional Bull Riders), and many Open rodeo events throughout the year.

Inside the arena, Rosser has continued to bring new and exciting events to his rodeos to keep the entertainment value at its best and the excitement level even more electrifying. Events such as Bull Poker, Roman Chariot Races, Bull Teeter-Totter and the "Wild Ride," along with top bucking horses and bulls make his events top-notch. Always on the cutting edge of rodeo and searching for more ways to entertain crowds with true American West sports, Rosser has turned his attention to the sport of Ranch Sorting. As his rodeo events continue to grasp the excitement of thousands of spectators each year, Rosser is teaming up with the RSNC to bring ranch sorting under the spotlight of the rodeo world. Under the watchful eye of Rosser and the RSNC, sorters can look forward to attend up to about a dozen of this year's Flying U rodeo events along the west coast and have a chance to compete alongside professional rodeo cowboys

Tunica, MS

The Buckner Family would like to express our deepest gratitude for all the people who came and supported our first annual RSNC Sorting held in Tunica, MS on December 9-11, 2011. We had an amazing turnout. People came from Oklahoma, North Carolina, Texas, Tennessee, Arkansas, Louisiana, Alabama, New York, and Mississippi to compete for beautiful Maynard buckles and prize money of over $23,000. This show brought in 43 new members to the RSNC Family. We ran a total of 724 teams in 3 days and each day was over by 4.

Friday morning started off a little chilly with a 25 man round robin paying out $7,500. Kelly Downs took home a check for $2250. Terry Brooks made his trip worth while taking home 2nd, 3rd was Lynn Mayall, 4th Kevin Hosea, and 5th David Walker. Good job guys.

The All Levels Handicap was the first class for Saturday with teams fighting for $2,268. 1st Sonya Buckner and Nancy Perry $771.12 2nd Jane Blackburn and Brian Buckner $612.36 3rd Darren Detmer and David Walker $453.60 4th Lynn Mayall and Stephanie Detmer $226.80 5th Brian McClain and Andy Schultz $204.12

Sorting Is Addicting!

I'm 59 year old, and brand new to cattle sorting. After many years of riding english, I attended a Buck Brannaman clinic this fall. I participated in the horsemanship, a.m. part of the clinic and sat and watched the cow clinic that followed that afternoon. I can't say I was hooked, but I was interested. The next weekend, Tony and Jenny Vought held a cow clinic in Fair Play, Missouri. I was taking two horses down for training anyway, so decided to attend the clinic to see if it might be something I might like. I can't put into words how much I enjoyed my first experience with cows. My horse had never worked cows, and she surprised the heck out of everyone. All teeth and pinned ears, she was relentless. What struck me was how we both were so focused on doing the job. I had been working for this kind of connection with a horse my whole life, and there it was. I ordered a western saddle from Skip Henderson, and put my english saddle away for good.

The next weekend I was invited to head down to southern Kansas to help out on a working cattle ranch. We would need to do some sorting, and move the herd from their pasture, to the pens for vaccinations and back to another pasture. I think there were about 300 heifers and calves to move and sort. Since my riding horse was down in Missouri, I took my spooky, reactive, little quarter horse mare that I hadn't ridden in three years. In a clinic, you introduce a horse new to cows by tracking one cow. Little Bit tracked 300 cows. She not only didn't spook, she was about as focused as I've ever seen a horse. I thought it, she did it. Including galloping after wayward heifers that decided to make a brake for it. My mare never gallops. Ever. For the first time, I felt that centaur feeling. My mind and her mind were one. Her feet were my feet. Connection beyond anything I thought was possible. She collected up like a dressage horse and gave me the nicest little trot you'd ever sit. Cows pressed so tight on my legs at times, I couldn't see the ground. Their backs higher than my horse's, and with no hesitation, she went in and got her cow. Nicely too. Real calm, and the cow acted like she was pleased to help us out.

I sure hope RSNC can make it out here to the Kansas Missouri area. There's a lot of interest, it makes for a great family sport, and even an old lady like me can get out there, have fun and compete. I haven't been this excited about riding ever. I'm pretty sure my horses feel the same way. Deb Johnson

"Notice Eclipse is wearing a halter and lead rope. I hopped on to do one more round of sorting at the last minute. Her first day working cows and I've never had her as focused or connected. We moved as one. Loose rein, her feet, my feet. Every horse there was working cows for the first time. Every rider there had the same experience with thier horses. Dressage riders, trail riders, english, western, old and young. Every horse seemed to have found thier purpose in life. I went home, sold my dressage saddle and contacted Skip Henderson to make me a western, cow appropriate, jewel of a saddle. Sorting has totallyl changed my focus in riding. I'm gonna need to get some cows. This is SO like a drug! "

RAMPING UP HORSE TRACKING AT RSNC

With RSNC's new alliance with AQHA, horse tracking now becomes even more exciting. Therefore we are ramping up our horse tracking program. Beginning January 1st 2012 to be entered into the horse earnings and qualify for the Horse of the Year in our Hall of Fame within your state and nationally there will be a $2.00 tracking and processing fee per show/per horse. At each show there will be a Horse Tracking form to be filled out by the contestant and turned into the office. Contestants may want to make copies of their cards for future shows. Below is an example of what will be required on the card. This is the contestants responsibility to complete the Horse Tracking card, not the producer.

This tracking system not only gives recognition to your best partner (your horse) but it also increases it's value by permanently registering it's winnings within the sport. Horse Tracking dollars will be posted to our website throughout the year.

DIESEL EXHAUST FLUID IS THE DEVIL...

Ok now that we have that out there let's talk trucks! My name is Britt Woods and I'm one of you. I have been riding RSNC for about 4 years now and have loved every minute of it. I am also a salesman with John Vance Autogroup and Country Ford. I have paid for my fun by selling trucks to farmers, ranchers, oil field companies, construction companies and people like you. I love what I do and would not change a thing about it for the world, I have met some wonderful people that introduced me to the sport of sorting.

The one thing I have heard over the last year at every show I go to is how much diesel exhaust fluid is, the worst thing to happen to diesel trucks ever. I listen to all the reasons that everybody comes up with that it cost $10 a gallon, it adds $100 to the cost of an oil change, you have to fill that tank every time you fill up with diesel and my favorite you will get stranded on the side of the road if you try to get away from home because you can't find it anywhere but a dealership. I am going to take a few minutes to debunk a few of these myths and I look forward to seeing you down the road.

It cost $10 a gallon. Really, that is so far from the truth. You should pay between $2-5 a gallon depending on where you purchase it from. You can buy it at parts stores like NAPA and Autozone, Tractor Supply, Atwoods, and most any farm and ranch store as well as your dealership should top it off every oil change for you.

It adds a $100 or more to the cost of an oil change. I wish but in reality it adds about $25- 50 to the cost of an oil change. The real extra cost of the oil change is the use of a semi-synthetic oil to even a full synthetic oil for today's diesels. The new diesels today operate at such a high pressure environment that a true natural oil will not hold up to the everyday stresses that we put on them. I highly recommend at least a semi-synthetic diesel oil for every one of my customers for every oil change, it may cost a little more but it will save you a bunch down the line.

You have to fill every time you fill up the truck. Boy the whoppers don't get much bigger than this one! All the manufactures have made this a 7-8,000 mile range and if you keep your oil changes at 5,000 miles than you will find that you only top the tank. Now don't get me wrong idle time and load can cause you to use more of it but unless you have a hole in the tank you should only be topping the tank every 5,000 miles with an oil change, and it is because of that topping the tank you should feel good about hitting the road for your favorite sorting spot!!

If you would like to talk trucks please feel free to contact me at (405) 229-5690 or britt@brittwoodsdirect.com, I always look forward to making new friends and ride partners.

It was Wolfe Productions first ranch sorting event at Rappel's Indoor Arena. It was the perfect setting for a cold November day. The cold weather did not keep sorters away, as there were 224 teams in attendance. Thanks to the show staff: Mandy Wolfe, Marcy and Bailey Monnahan, LeAnne Dingman, Desiree Wailes, Ashley Hooley, Danny May, Logan Wolfe, Kason Wolfe and Val Rodriguez for keeping the show running smoothly. Special thanks to Wayne Lockwood for taking pictures of Wolfe Productions events. Wolfe Productions looks forward to seeing you in 2012! Congratulations to all the winners!

ALL SUPPORT IS NOT CREATED EQUAL

There are 32 ligaments and tendons in the lower equine leg. For years polo wraps and splint boots have been used in an effort to protect horses against impact in this region, however, they offer your horse very little support.

Utilizing our revolutionary Double Sling Strap® system, the Iconoclast® Equine Support Boots are specifically designed to provide true 360-degree support to your horse's lower limb. Iconoclast® Boots are endorsed and prescribed by leading equine veterinarians around the world to protect against and even rehabilitate injuries caused from hyperextension.

Winfield, PA

PENNSYLVANIA RSNC CHAMPIONSHIP FINALS.

On November 12, Circle B Arena LLC, owned by Greg and Beth Byers, had the privilege to host the first Pennsylvania RSNC Championship Finals. Throughout the 2011 season, riders were yielded from Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Maryland, Georgia and Florida to RSNC's first Pennsylvania sanctioned producer, Greg Byers, Circle B Arena LLC near the town of Winfield in the Susquehanna Valley.

The show was postponed from the original scheduled date of October 29th date due to freak weather prediction of up to 10 inches of snow, uncommon to central Pennsylvania for the season. November 12th turned out to be a beautiful, sunny day with temperatures in the 50's. The cattle were running well and the horses were ready to go. 170 teams were set to run with an accumulative cash jackpot of $2905 to be paid out.

Cash winnings were awarded in multiple places of the five divisions offered and first place winners were:
 All Levels Handicap won by Chelsea Magaha and Casey Hoffa

- #5 Handicap won by Justin Nester and Deb Sidle
- #10 Handicap (Masters) won by Rich Hoffa and Brad Wiest
- #9 Handicap won by Chelsea Magaha and Samantha King
- #11 Rookie Handicap won by Greg Maust and Greg Byers

The coveted RSNC Championship Finals vest were awarded to the high points winners of the Masters, #1 through #5 rated riders in Pennsylvania as follows:

- Masters – Rich Hoffa
- #1 – Gloria Morrison
- #2 – Daniel Tharp
- #3 – Samantha King
- #4 – Casey Hoffa
- #5 – Rich Hoffa

Many THANKS are extended to all of the riders and our production staff that came out in 2011 to support RSNC and Circle B Arena LLC. Best wishes for a healthy and winning New Year.

For the membership of RSNC, we at Atwood Hat Co. would like to offer black and chocolate 5X hats that retail for $215.00 for 174.95 and buckskin, traditional silverbelly that retail for $240.00 for $200.00. If you want a 4 1/2 or 5 inch brim, add $5.00. These hats are available in Low Crown, Regular Crown, Open Crown or Square Top. We are also offering the 4X black for $135 for a 4 inch brim and $140 for a 4 1/2 inch brim. RSNC has been very good to us and the members have always been friendly and welcoming to their events. These hats are 100% rabbit fur and hand crafted as are all of our felt hats. I hope this discount is helpful to the membership of RSNC.
