LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

There are some great articles from our producers all accross the country and I encourage you to read them and enjoy the excitment they all are sharing!

Last issue I thought I was using up all the good news but it just keeps getting better. This year the RSNC State Finals attendance was up by over 1000 more teams. In addition Colorado exploded with over 1100 teams competing at the Colorado State Finals. Congratulations to all the top 5 State Champions who are proudly strutting around in their Cripple Creek Apparel. You are looking mighty sharp!

The first of the 4 Regional Finals was a success with the South Central Regional in Wichita Falls Texas hosting 720 teams. We are excited to head to the other 3 in the next couple months as there are eager contestants wanting to win some Todd Jey Custom saddles and lots of other great prizes.

The truth is things have gotten so big that I can no longer make it to all of the new producer's events and these regional events give me an opportunity to meet some new producers and tons of members that I haven't got to meet. They also give RSNC an opportunity to give a big prize line to our very deserving membership who may not all be able to make it to the National Finals. However it is our hope that the Regional Experience is so good that you all decide that missing the National Finals will be out of the question.

Last month we broke the news that the Finals will be in OKC along side the Battle in the Saddle contest. We also said that while it was tentative, we expected to be at least a week long event. Well here is the big news that I know you all will want to here. After listening to you the membership and some big negotiations with the AOHA Battle in the Saddle Committee we have been able to rearrange the arena schedules so we can bring it back to a 6 day event that will end on Sunday July 8th. We added arena time and more sorting pens and are giving our membership both the cake and frosting with an awesome facility and a shortened schedule. We want you there and we are jumping thru hoops to make it work for you. See the schedule on page 6.

You can now book your stalls and reserve your motel rooms at the Biltmore if you haven't already. By the way over 200 stalls are already booked and it is only February. This promises to be the biggest and best ever and all eyes will be watching just to see where our sport can go.

Not only is RFD TV going to be there all week, they are interviewing us now about what RSNC has planned to continue to break every record that this equine sport has set for growth and participation. We have a show on RFD TV 3 weeks in march plus a 1 hour special with two of our best Shelly Fitzgerald and Brian Buckner on the horse show channel DISH 232 on April 2.

I happened to look back at the Presidents letter exactly one year ago. We were all pumped up to try to hit 5000 members by the National Finals. Just in case you haven't heard, we just passed 14,000 members and we haven't even turned you loose yet for next years free memberships drive!

That starts now and I am confident that each and every one of you can go find at least one new friend to introduce to the fun we are all so kindly willing to share. We will again give you and free 2012/13 membership right along with them. You have between March and July to do it so it is open season and time to make new friends. Spring is here and they are waiting for your invitation to saddle up their horse. Brig them to an event and bring them to the Finals. We promise you won't be disappointed!!!!!

Boy!! Things are really rolling right along here! Have you heard about our show from last weekend?!?! Our sixth show, and we had 300 teams!!! We are soooo excited and we're getting so much good feedback - people seem to be loving it! For our February show, we're going to start running two pens. Keep your fingers crossed....if we keep growing at the rate we're going, we may have to think about moving to a two day format before too long. I just can't believe it!!!!

We have our state finals scheduled for March 17th, so I've been in touch with Leslie at Maynard buckles. We got a design all worked out, and I sent out a check yesterday for our first "BSRS State Finals" buckles. EXCITING!!!!!!! Our folks here are excited!! I printed out the email that y'all sent out yesterday with all of the information for Oklahoma City and took all the details out to the barn. Our group is raring to go - we can't wait to make the trip to OKC!!

So many exclamation points......did I tell you how excited I am?!?!?! I have met so many awesome people through RSNC events and ranch sorting - lots and lots of new friends.....I'm lovin' it!!

Well, attached is the flyer - guess I'd better get back to work. Still have some paperwork to finish up from the show to send in to you all for Horse Earnings Tracking, and I've got to fill out our new contract that y'all sent to Mike and get that sent back in....he just hands me all of the paperwork now and tells me to "handle it". He jokingly refers to me as the Bayou State Ranch Sorting President - I told him the only way that I will accept the title is if it comes with a tiara (which must have something horsey incorporated into it somewhere) and a big, shiny buckle that says "PRESIDENT". LOL!!! We're having a blast!!!!

Thanks for all that y'all do-I am soooooo glad that we are a part of the RSNC family!

> Talk to you soon! Jamie

Flintstone, GA

Congratulations to Megan McClain of Benton, Kentucky, High Point Overall Grand Champion at Eagles Rest Ranch (ERR) for February. Brian McClain, Benton, Kentucky, was 2nd place and Jack Pemberton, Murfreesboro, Tennessee, placed third. We had a total of 234 teams and a wonderful day!

ERR produces a sorting the first Saturday of every month as a fundraiser for our SpiritHorse Therapeutic Riding program. On March 3rd we will again be offering added money in three classes, a one of a kind ERR RSNC belt buckle for the High Point Winner and 2 bronc halters, as well as 'fun' prizes awarded by the judge or producer for each class. In our SpiritHorse program we work with mental and physical developmental disabilities, spinal cord and brain injuries, social disorders, youth at risk and we are in the planning stages for a veterans program. We are a 501(c)3 non-profit and this event raises money for scholarships for our SpiritHorse riders.

ERR has a 100' x 200' covered arena with overhang of 25' on the sides and stalls around the arena. We offer a nice concession area, bleachers and a bath-house. We offer complete trailer hook-ups with electricity, water and sewer. We have wonderful sand and footing for our riders. Come join the FUN!

MARCH 30 - APRIL 1, 2012

Cinch Eastern Super Sort

Sorter Set To Converge on Tennessee

Ranch sorters all across the Eastern states are looking forward to the RSNC Super Sort event to hit that part of the country. The Cinch Eastern Regional Super Sort will be the crown jewel of ranch sorting events east of the Mississippi River for 2012. From Florida to Maine, Illinois to the Eastern seaboard, as well as Ontario and Quebec, Canada, this one event invites competitors of the sorting pens to unite, compete and enjoy one of the RSNC's finest. In addition, there will be plenty of chances for huge payouts, great prizes and let's not forget the great family fun of ranch sorting.

The Cinch Eastern Regional Super Sort will be hosted at the Walter State Great Smoky Mountains Expo Center in Morristown, Tennessee. Sorters can mark their calendars for March 30 through April 1 to take part of in this event, and enjoy two days of sorting for every caliber of sorter. The Super Sorts are all about big championships and the RSNC has held nothing back. To begin, sorters will have a chance to ride for 60% payback in most events and no less than 50% in any event. Additionally, there will be lots of prizes up for grabs. From Todd Jey trophy saddles, Justin boots, RSNC trophy jackets, Iconoclast boots and trophy buckles, the RSNC has a whole stock-pile of prizes ready for this event.

Not only will the excitement of the Cinch Regional Super Sort take center stage for sorters and their families, the great state of Tennessee, 'Volunteer State,' as well as the city of Morristown will roll out the welcome mat for sorters, families and friends. Morristown is the county seat of Hamblen County, and although it is the smallest county in Tennessee, it is a beautiful place to visit and packs a punch when it comes to hospitality and comfort. Located within the Holston River Valley, nestled between the Great Smoky Mountains to the south and the rugged Clinch Mountains to the north, natural beauty and rich history is abundant.

Morristown has deep roots in rich history. Dubbed the "Crossroads of Dixie," it is where the main roads between Knoxville to Baltimore cross the famous Buffalo Trail from Cumberland Gap. These long used paths have united many throughout the years and will once again play crossroads for ranch sorters as they meet to compete for some of this years big RSNC payouts.

For those who want to get their kicks on the history of Morristown, you can't miss the General Longstreet's Headquarters. Filled with historic memorabilia from the Civil War era, it is a perfect setting for any historic buff. Not far from the Longstreet House sits historic Bethesda Church & Cemetery. This picturesque plot of land features a look at both Civil War and local history of the area. A majestic stone archway, graves dating from the 1700's and a church that was used as a hospital during the Civil War takes visitors back in time. Finally, every visitor need to stop by and see the Davy Crockett Tavern. Although it is a replica of the boyhood home of Tennessee hero Davy Crockett, the museum contains artifacts from Davy's childhood and tells the story of this legendary figure in American history.

Modern amenities are mixed into the historic scenes in Morristown. Overhead sidewalks and Downtown Morristown is an adventure in itself. Downtown Main Street is filled with beautiful architecture, great shopping and tasty restaurants. Completed in 1969, the downtown "SkyMart" was an ambitious urban renewal project that added a second, overhead sidewalk to Morristown's Main Street. The sidewalks have recently been renovated and serve as a unique venue for downtown's festivals and events.

Sorters will feel welcome and at home in Morristown. Locals are among the friendliest anywhere, take pride in their community and are open to entertain and welcome visitors. The mild climate and perfect southern hospitality will be just as inviting as the RSNC event itself. Sorters are welcomed to this event and invited to stay a while and enjoy Morristown, the great state of Tennessee and the opportunity to enjoy one of the best ranch sorting events of the year!

APRIL 6 - 8, 2012

North Central Super Sort

Loveland, Colorado and "The Ranch" at the Larimer County Fairgrounds will establish another chapter for the RSNC and their quest to host the biggest ranch sorting event of the year. The Cinch North Central Super Sort is scheduled for April 6-8, 2012 and the sorters are already talking about it being one of the biggest and best events of the year. Although it is only one of the four Super Sort stops on the RSNC schedule, the overwhelming number of sorters in the region will make it one event to attend. In addition, the RSNC has a prize line that is second to none and a showcase of classes for every type of today's ranch sorter. Add this together with one of the country's leading facilities inside the setting of beautiful Colorado and you get the perfect arrangement for one great event.

Sorters from the states of New Mexico, Utah, Oklahoma, Nebraska, Wyoming, Montana, North and South Dakota, Iowa and Indiana will converge on Colorado soil for ranch sorting competition that will no doubt be second to none. As the RSNC format opens the door for more and more newcomers to the sorting pens, as well as the large number of returning competitors who have been the growing pot for the sport, this event will incorporate it all.

The RSNC has a proven record of showcasing the best in the sport and the Super Sort events adds to their quest to make the sport of ranch sorting one of the most exciting and addicting equine sports in the Country. This event will host a slew of chances for sorters to walk away winners. With 60% payback in most of the event classes and 50% in others, their will be plenty of money available to fill the pockets of the champions. Additionally, Todd Jey Saddles will be available to highpoint riders and Justin Boots will be awarded to Reserve champions. The prizes don't stop there though and the three day event will deliver RSNC trophy jackets, or Iconoclast boots and custom trophy buckles to winners of classes.

The North Central Super Sort is just a hop and a skip away from the RSNC home office and the hosting facility has been a friend to them for many years. The Ranch is one of the premier equine facilities in the west and the roots to the Larimer County Fairgrounds. Since its opening in 2003 it has become the center stone of large and super successful entertainment for many different type of events.

The city of Loveland has been part of the western heritage and has continued to keep the cowboy image alive while sitting at the doorway to one of the most pristine wildernesses in the country. Loveland's rather long history dates back to the mid 1800's. The Big Thompson Valley was once a scattered assortment of small farms along the banks of the river. A small trading post and toll bridge sprang up in 1862 and was soon followed by an Overland stage stop. By 1877, the Colorado Central Railroad made its way through modern day Loveland to join Longmont to Cheyenne. Not too long afterwards a mercantile business was opened. This original store is still standing on the northwest corner of Cleveland Avenue and Fourth Street. With this humble beginning, the city of Loveland was born. Visitors can learn much more about its rich history at Loveland Museum/Gallery at Fifth Street and Lincoln Avenue. Within the museum, historic rooms and shops have been recreated including Mariano Medina's cabin.

As a suburb of the much larger Fort Collins, the two cities have continued to grow towards each other and have become a Mecca in Northern Colorado. Part of the inviting pieces of Loveland is the natural beauty of Colorado. The Big Thompson Canyon just outside Loveland is the gateway to the Rockies. This narrow canyon mouth is the famous entrance to Estes Park Village, as well as the Rocky Mountain National Park. As one of the most visited National Parks in the country, visitors and vacationers flock each year for a taste of its beauty.

Sorters from some of the biggest states that represent the RSNC will no doubt find the North Central Super Sort one of the biggest events of the year. You can bet the Sorting action will be hot, the fun abundant and the payouts rewarding. The RSNC is gunning for another success story and have held nothing back to make this a great event. Don't miss it!

Cinch Western Regional Super Sort Change up Opens Door For Western Sorters

Sorters across the West-Listen Up! Don't think you are going to be left out of the fun of some of the biggest sorting events of the year. The RSNC is coming your way with the Cinch Western Regional Super Sort. Although it was originally scheduled to be held in Carson City, Nevada, the event has been moved due to conflict within the city and the lack of hotel room availability. However, the RSNC went to work and found another location capable of hosting an event of this magnitude and in early hindsight might be even better suited for sorters and the RSNC Super Sort event. Ceres, California and the Diamond Bar Arena will play host this the first Super Sort event for sorters in the Western states to enjoy.

The friendly owners of Diamond Bar Arena and the small town life of Ceres is a perfect match for the friendly hospitality of the RSNC. Ranch sorters can sit back and enjoy this event under friendly conditions, while still having a chance to ride for big money. The event welcomes sorters from six western states including Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Nevada, Arizona and of course California, as well as British Columbia and Canada. Sorters in these states have grown considerably over the past few years and the Super Sort event gives them an opportunity to compete on a more national level. In addition, the prize line that includes Todd Jey Saddles to high point champions, Justin Boots to Reserve High Piont winners and RSNC trophy jackets, Iconoclast boots and lots of trophy buckles unmatched by any event. Like the four other Super Sort events the payout will be maxed out as well. There will be 60% payout in most events and no less than 50% payout in any division.

The hosting facility of Diamond Bar Arena is owned by a husband and wife who have been in the horse industry their entire lives. Owners, Shane and Kim Parson have owned the facility a little over ten years and in that time have converted the once roping facility into a multi-plex arena and full care boarding facility. Diamond Bar Arena has entertained many different types of activities throughout the years including barrel races and gymkhanas to horse shows, 4-H events and ranch sorting. They are very detail oriented and know what sorters want and will aim to please. Additionally, Kim and Shane enjoy what they do and are happy to provide a family oriented and safe place for event goers that sorters are sure to enjoy.

The city of Ceres is located in the San Joaquin Valley along State Route 99, south of Modesto and north of Turlock. With a small town atmosphere, the city has many fun and enjoyable events for locals and visitors to enjoy. Street fairs, local concerts, and more, the city never sits still and there seems to always be something to do and see.

History runs deep in Ceres and the first families that inhabited the area can be dated back to 1867. Some of the very first homes built in the late 1800's are still standing giving the traditional look of the city and the heritage they are proud of.

Today there are less than 50,000 people who live in Ceres which have a rich deep history in agricultural and western heritage. Comfortable climates year round, the city sits south of the Tuolumne River that many local head to enjoy part of California's beauty. As a growing community with a heartfelt commitment to retaining its small neighborhood personality Ceres will be a welcoming sight for the many sorters who will attend the Cinch Western Regional Super Sort.

Sorters will feel right at home in Ceres and the Diamond Bar Arena during their trek to one of the biggest sorting events of the year. The RSNC may have lucked out to find such a great place to host the event. With the thought of having personal attention, friendly people and a great location for all western sorters to attend, this event will no doubt feature a big statement for the sport and the RSNC. Without a doubt, this will be an event that showcases everything the RSNC stands for, including the family-fun values, and personal attention that has helped it become the #1 Equine Family Sport.

Thar's Ranch Sorting would like to thank all of our sorters that support our events, and remind everyone that all points accumulated at Thar's Ranch Sorting makes sorters eligible for year-end prizes awarded at our 2 day show May 12 -13 in Gillette, WY. We would like to give a BIG THANK YOU to our sponsors, Animal Medical Center, Hubbard Life Feeds, Thunder Basin Ford, N-Line services, Thar's Feed, Quality Aggregate, Robertson Trucking, and Kissack water & Oil.

Magee, MS

The Buckner and Bynum families would like to say a huge THANK YOU to all who came to our first RSNC Sanctioned show at our home in Magee, MS. We also want everyone to know how much we appreciate everyone's patience while Ms. Brenda got to know the RSNC software. We promise to have all the major bugs worked out for our next show.

The real show started for us on Friday getting the cattle truck stuck not once but twice. The local semi wrecker service learned our address very well. We had to go to our local sale barn unload the semi and Brian had to go pick the cattle up with our 9 horse trailer. Then came the panels that are so heavy it took two men to move them after the tractor brought them in the arena. Not to mention the arena was soaking wet. A special thanks to Jeff Koontz, Albert May, and Rip Rippy for all their help on Friday with out you guys we would not have been ready for Saturday.

Saturday was a beautiful day full of sorting. We started the day off with the All Levels Handicap where Dustin Johnson seemed to do no wrong. He was first with Cody Lorick then second with Clay Courson. Finishing 3rd was Sonya Buckner and Ethan Lorick. The next class for the day was the #13 Handicap 1st went to Sonya Buckner and Ethan Lorick 2nd Dustin Johnson and Alan Lorick 3rd Harrell Smith and Lynn Ray and 4th was Brian Buckner and Paul Moore.

Here is where the waiting started and again our sincerest apologizes to everyone the # 11 Ranch Hand with a # 4 cap on the sorter. 1st went to Sonya Buckner and LeAnn Johnson 2nd Brian Buckner and Rip Rippy 3rd Rip Rippy and Albert May. Next we went straight into the # 6 Handicap where Alan Lorick and Cindy Morgan finished up 1st 2nd went to Ethan Lorick and Cody Lorick 3rd Albert May and Cindy Morgan 4th Michael Lambert and Cindy Morgan. It looks like this was the class for Cindy Morgan and Lorick family, good job guys.

The Beginners class was the last class of the day with Jeff Koontz and Makenzie Moore taking home 1st place 2nd went to John Waldrup and Ashley Scott 3rd Brian Johnson and Ashley Scott.

Cultivating the Beginner Sorter Ann and Tony Cole Four Hoof Drive Sorting Oklahoma)

Beginners are the future of our sport. We all benefit when ranch sorting grows, but ensuring that newcomers are attracted to the sport and stay to grow into the higher divisions can be a challenge. Ranch sorting producers, Ann and Tony Cole, share their ideas to increase interest in beginner level classes. The Coles have had a history of helping beginners with their horses so they tend to be "beginner friendly".

"We hosted a beginner clinic one week before our January show" states Tony Cole. "The result was fantastic, we doubled our beginner class and had 104 teams." The clinic was designed to help beginners get started in the sport. The Coles limited the clinic to 15 riders so everyone would receive individual attention. Beginners are often worried about being yelled at or getting embarrassed so it is important to provide an environment so they can feel comfortable learning. Fortunately, the Coles were able to get local clinicians to help teach the clinic. These experienced sorters are naturally soft spoken and were able to make everyone feel comfortable from the start. All the clinic participants started on foot, learning how to direct the cattle one direction or the other and progressed to working the cattle from horseback. The clinic began at 9:00 a.m. and ended at 5:00 p.m. with a break for lunch. Offering a lunch break during the clinic allowed everyone to get to know each other and ask questions of the clinicians. The lunch break also allowed time to introduce the beginners to the RSNC and go over the rules of the sport. "By the end of the day, everyone was having so much fun they almost didn't want to leave" said Ann Cole. With the excitement generated at the clinic, it naturally bled over to the riders wanting to attend the next show and with the show being that following weekend, almost everyone who attended the clinic entered the beginner class in the January show. Plus by having explained the rules, and having a jackpot like fun class at the end of the clinic, the beginners knew what to expect when they arrived at the actual show.

Another way to attract beginners is to offer prizes other than the payout for the class. "For our show, the top five in each division got a prize" Tony said. "We were lucky to have two wonderful sponsors for our show, Lumber 2 Home and Ranch and Purina Mills". Both companies helped get prizes for the show, but even if you cannot get a sponsor, prizes do not have to be expensive. For our beginner youth class, every youth that participated got a prize. They received a feed scoop with a small bag of horse treats and then a hoof pick or comb in bright colors. "The youth loved being able to take home something, it really didn't matter what it was, just as long as they got something to show their friends and relatives" said Ann. Hopefully, since the youth had so much fun, they will want to come back to our next show.

Beginners will not be able to move up in the divisions without practice. So, Ann and Tony host a ranch sorting practice at their barn once a week. "During our practice sessions, we make sure that anyone new to our practice is asked if they want some help to get started", says Tony. Many times, the people attending practice for the first time are reluctant to ask for help so by mentioning it first, the new comer feels more comfortable asking for help. Tony mentions "Ann is good with beginners; she has a lot of patience." While Ann is a beginner ranch sorter she is experienced in other areas. Ann makes sure she asks newcomers to their practice if they would like to be "coached" while they are practicing. When they say yes, both Ann and Tony help them by making comments while they are riding or immediately afterward to help the newcomer see what they could to make their ride a little bit better. Since these new riders get to know us during practice, they do not hesitate to come up and talk to us when they come to the shows. "We always make a point to talk to everyone and to let them know that if they need some help all they have to do is ask." Tony mentioned. Since these people have gotten to know the Cole's outside of their RSNC Shows, they feel more comfortable attending that first show.

It is important to remember that when comments are made to a beginning sorter to help them improve that the focus of the comment is on how to improve, not on what was done wrong. "If a beginner never feels like he or she is doing the right thing the right way then they give up and quit" says Tony. To make this sport last a long time and to continue long term, we have to grow our beginners into seasoned competitors. "This is really a win-win-win situation here" Ann says. "The RSNC gets more members, the producers get more riders at their shows and the beginner gains confidence and has a better time when they do compete". If anyone has questions or would like to get ideas from the Coles, please feel free to contact them by e-mail at tcole4hd@yahoo.com.

When my husband, Mark Link said he wanted to produce some RSNC shows this winter, I had some misgivings. When he talks about putting on a show, it generally means that he wants me to be the show secretary. We had done some jackpot shows in the past and I knew how much paperwork is involved for the show secretary. Mark has been following the RSNC's growth for a while now and has gotten very enthusiastic about how the association works. So I said, yes, let's try doing some with RSNC. Celsey, (pronounced with a hard 'C' like Celtic) our 25 year-old daughter offered co-produce our series of shows. With one more adult to share the work of a show, it made a lot more sense to us.

So Celsey contacted the RSNC early in the winter and got our show dates and our flyer approved. The RSNC helped us define which classes to have and what our flyer should look like. They had a flyer template to go by which ensures that all the pertinent information is on it. Once we had our dates approved, we received the software from the RSNC. We installed it on two computers, a laptop and a desktop. The RSNC requires that you run a mock show through their software so that you become familiar with it. So we did that and went through the process of setting up teams and running the class and entering the times. We had planned on having another mock show with real people, but the weather didn't cooperate and we didn't get that done.

A few days before the show, the RSNC sent out the current membership database and software updates. Updating the computers with these two items was very simple. For any current RSNC member, I had their membership status, their rating and what state they were from.

The day of the show arrived and I got our computer set in our show secretary's office. It was a cold, rainy day, but since we have a large indoor arena, everyone could stay indoors with their horses and watch the show when they weren't riding. I networked the two computers together by taking my wireless router out to the arena as well. This worked great and we were able to avoid buying a bunch of network cable. The instructions on networking the computers that RSNC provided were helpful and this was actually quite simple to do. In the secretary's booth, I had my printer, my computer and monitor, a copy of the RSNC rulebook, the latest membership printout that RSNC had sent us and all the RSNC instructions on the software. We had a table and chairs set up to give people a place to write their entries. Once I started getting entries in, I entered the teams and put together the first class. With the RSNC membership database and software, entering the teams went quickly. When that was done, I did the draw and the show began.

Before I got the first class completed, I was a little stressed out, but after that was done, I was able to get out of the booth, visit with people, track people down with questions and have fun. For this first show we manually entered our times, but we have purchased a Farmtek timer, so we will be using that for the rest of our shows. This should help simplify some of the timing work.

Helping people check out and pay their entries or receive their winnings went fairly smoothly and by the end of the day I was tired, but still happy and in a good mood. We had 144 teams at our first show and everyone seemed to have a great time. Next show I will do a few things differently. I bought a set of plastic shoe boxes for a dollar apiece from Big Lots which I will label with the class name and people can put their entries in there instead of handing them to me and interrupting me while I am working on entering the teams. I'll get the coffee going a little earlier and the muffins out sooner. I'll get my computer set up the night before. I'll turn the heat on in the office the night before. I'll have a heater running under my desk. And, I'll know ahead of time that it is going to be a great day!

For the membership of RSNC, we at Atwood Hat Co. would like to offer black and chocolate 5X hats that retail for $215.00 for 174.95 and buckskin, traditional silverbelly that retail for $240.00 for $200.00. If you want a 4 1/2 or 5 inch brim, add $5.00. These hats are available in Low Crown, Regular Crown, Open Crown or Square Top. We are also offering the 4X black for $135 for a 4 inch brim and $140 for a 4 1/2 inch brim. RSNC has been very good to us and the members have always been friendly and welcoming to their events. These hats are 100% rabbit fur and hand crafted as are all of our felt hats. I hope this discount is helpful to the membership of RSNC.

San Martin, CA

Along with all the great RSNC ranch sorting going on in California, the Pacific Penning and Sorting Association (PPSA) is proud to introduce the RSNC Program into our area. San Martin is a small community approximately 50 miles south of San Francisco, which we call the central coast. This was the first RSNC event which we had the privilege of promoting. We drew teams from all over California and also were very pleased to have RSNC members as far as Nevada and Wyoming come to participate. Congratulations to our High Point Buckle winner Joe Sanford of Ceres, California. The buckle was in memory of Fred Lonnberg our past president who recently died in a tragic auto accident. I would like to thank all the members who helped from start to finish, Thorson's arena for providing their great facility, our fabulous office help, our flagger Frances March and Wendy Wedemeyer who was instrumental in making the RSNC sorting a success. The PPSA is looking forward to promoting many more RSNC events in the future. Thank you RSNC for such a great format to follow.

Spring Towing Carries Special Risk

As we head into March and April, we begin to see longer, warmer days and the ride bug is kicking in hard, after what seems like forever stuck at home. You are starting to see the green growth and the robins have started populating your yard. Also, the first of flowers are starting to brighten our days too. Are you thinking, this weekend we are going to go out there, hook up the trailer and head out to catch up with old friends we might not have seen in awhile and start knocking the rust off ourselves and our horses? Hang on right quick! We need to check a few things before we head down the road and put ourselves and/or our horses at risk. At risk of what you might ask? Now is the time for a dry run with the trailer. If you will just take that extra couple hours, it might just make it so you can ride a lot more when you do get out to that show or practice. Let me give you a few reminders before you hit the road:

- 1. Tires- How did our tires fair thru the winter months? I would be willing to bet that your tires are going to be 10-15 pounds low on air. Why, because cold air is more dense than warm air. You had your tires set during those warm months and then, we just had winter that has caused them to lose air pressure. You also need to look for flat spots depending on how or when the last time your trailer moved it could cause it to bounce and handle just a little funny. We also need to look for cracks in the side walls and the treads. Yet, if you will take a few minutes and pull down to the local service station you can start getting rid of those flat spots and get the tires to the right air pressure. Don't forget to check the spare and make sure it is in good shape.
- 2. Lights- While at the service station checking the tires, it would be a good idea to check all your lights to make sure that your first trip out doesn't end up with a ticket for faulty equipment. When the tickets have to come out of the ride budget they can leave it a little shorter than we intended. If you take the hour or so to check out these few items you will get to that sorting a little easier, a little cheaper, and have more fun. It sure beats being stranded on the side of the road with a flat.

Now that we have the trailer ready to pull, it is time to make sure we have what we need in the trailer. We all know blowouts will happen when we really don't want them or expect them to, but we do need to be able to change a tire without taking our horses out. So, make sure that you have a trailer ramp and a lug star that fits both your truck and trailer. They don't take up that much room but they will save you a ton of time should anything go wrong.

This is also a time of year that we need to be weather aware while we pull, especially if you are pulling in the plains states of Oklahoma, Kansas, Texas, Arkansas, Missouri, and Nebraska. As mother nature can bring dangerous storms up in a hurry. I would say that a safe and smart captain would know three or four alternative routes to both a sorting and home. You might want to go ahead and invest in a new atlas and/or make sure you have your GPS system updated, so you can avoid when mother nature gets cranky.

Don't forget it is Truck Month! if you need anything contact me at bwoods@vancedeals.com or www.brittwoodsdirect.com.

I hope everybody has a great start to the 2012 show season!

Penning and Sorting Addiction:

Two riders walk in as they open the gate, the horses are nervous as they anticipate

The cattle are numbered zero to nine Which one will be first when the clock starts to time.

One rider goes in when a number is called The action is fast and there's no time to stall

He looks for the calf as his partner guards the gate The clock is a counting and there's no time to waste!

It's there on the wall" he hears his partner call His horse blocks then pushes it out and turns to face them all

The partner has spotted the second calf there in the mix He hopes he can hold it and the herd doesn't split.

Quickly they Sort them through the hole one by one Their hearts are a flying as they get the job done.

Next both hear the buzzer and the announcer's shout 30 seconds has past but there still not all out.

So the flurry continues as they swap to each cut out a calf The last one runs through the hole as the clock times out.

Their horses are tired as they exit the pen One says what a rush, I can't wait to do it again!

And that's the way the Sorting and Penning addiction goes, All your Saturdays are spent and so is your dough

FUN

I went sortin a week ago and hooked up with my friend Joe. We rode in the Masters class that we liked so well. But man I'm tellin ya it was hell. The cows were mean and ready to run, so I knew right then Joe > and I would have some fun. I rode through the hole and our number was 3, and there he was lookin at me. I cornered him tight and took him to the hole, only to find there was no Joe. I spun around and seen ol Joe, he was bringin another one to the hole. I took off like the speed of light and caught that next one on my right. When all was over, said and done, we'd given those critters a hell of a run. Even though this day we never won, let me tell ya we had some Fun!

"...with Fly Predators, along with the education and support from Spalding Labs, we're no longer inundated with flies as we were before. We've used other products, yet nothing has been as effective as Fly Predators. It's well worth the investment!"

—Richard Winters Ojai, CA National Reined Cow Horse Champion Road To The Horse Winner www.wintersranch.com

If flies drive you and your horses crazy, depend on our expertise for the real deal in fly relief. For 36 years we've helped hundreds of thousands of horse owners control flies the safe and easy way.

Four Steps To Fly Free

We recommend a simple four step plan that really fixes the problem, rather than just chase them away temporarily. For most folks just adding Fly Predators® is all that's needed, but if you have flies coming from neighbors, adding traps and Bye Bye Odor to handle those "visitors" completes the program.

Identify The Fly

Determine what kinds of flies are bugging you and if they are coming from your animals or the neighbors. Different flies come from different places and require different strategies to eliminate. Our "Guide to Fly Control" makes this easy. It's in your first shipment and online or simply call and speak to our knowledgeable reps.

Stop Future Flies

Stop flies from reproducing by cleaning up the areas where they breed (manure/spoiled vegetation) and adding Fly Predators.

Many people just go after adult flies buzzing around but that's only about 15% of the population at any time. If you don't stop the future ones you'll be plagued all summer.

Fly Predators kill flies before they emerge. You simply sprinkle Fly Predators near all manure areas every three to four weeks during warm months. It just takes a few minutes Spalding Fly Predators and you've done your fly control for the month.

Make Sure You Get Real Fly Predators

Some fly bugs sold under other brand names are not the same as Fly Predators. The species are different and the difference in performance can be huge!

Get Adult Flies

If needed, add traps to get adult flies. Most horse owners will need three different trap types as no one trap catches every fly. We offer the most effective traps, proven by USDA tests, and the best how to use info.

4. Don't Invite More

Flies have a tremendous sense of smell. If you ever wondered why there are more in your barn than elsewhere, it's likely BO, barn odor. Use Bye Bye Odor to eliminate harmful ammonia and barn odor. Let the flies find someone else's stinky barn instead.

Call or Order Online Today

Schedule your optimum pay-as-you-go shipments now. For best results, start before you have flies.

Use Fly Predators for one summer and if you are like most of our customers, you'll use them as long as you have your animals.

FREE Dr. Robert M. Miller Book

With your first Fly Predator or Bye Bye Odor shipment, if you request it, we'll include at no charge, a special and complete edition of Dr. Miller's groundbreaking book, "Understanding The Ancient Secrets of The Horse's Mind."

Tops them all with an AMAZING 1107 TEAMS!!!!!!!!!

Watch out RSNC National Finals here they come. It is possible that Colorado will take home the bragging rights this year because they are on fire for the sport of Ranch Sorting. Last year Colorado broke all records with state finals that topped 700 teams and this year they didn't only break it again they added another 400 teams to the record.

There is no question that contestants in Colorado are chomping at the bit to ride hard for the titles that lie ahead of them thru out the up coming year. RSNC is now sanctioning events all across the State and contestants appropriately came from all corners to show their stuff at the State Finals.

This year the weather cooperated and cabin fever took over with 3 great days of nothing but ranch sorting. Not only were State titles on the line but so were big cash payouts that always follow big classes.

Class winners were as follows: 10 HC Nugget Grossetete and Justin Riley, Rookie #11 HC Jaden Wolfe and Jim Derrisaw, 14 RH HC Kevin Speer and Kason Wolfe, #4 sort Jaden Wolfe and Kody Ward, All Levels HC Dwayne Haselip and Dan Seibert, Beginner Sort Zane Timko and Isaac Timko, 12 HC Chris and Dan Seibert, Satie Hawkins Claudia Hershey and Kevin Speer, 6 HC Claudia Hershey and Jaden Wolfe, 8 HC Stephanie Ewoldt and Jene Kasperbauer, Jr Youth Kody Ward, Masters Nugget Grossetete and Suzy Karlinski, Sr Youth Bailey Monnahan and Jaden Wolfe, 3 and Below Round Robin A Nugget Grossetete and Kevin Speer, 3 and Below Round Robin B Nancy DeVaney and Jim Ward, 3 and Below Round Robin C Jene Kasperbauer and Steve Torrance, 4 and above Round Robin Shawn Hohhalter and Chris Seibert.

> State Champions were: Beginner

South Central Regional

South Central Regional Finals hosts 720 teams

The first ever RSNC Regional Super Sort was held in Wichita Falls Texas on Feb 9th, 10th and 11th. The purpose of these events are to go give more back to RSNC contestants and support our producers with more incentives for their members to participate. 720 teams took advantage of this event and all were treated to a quality event with an exceptional prize line. Three Todd Jey saddles were awarded. Joe Johnson from Oklahoma won the #1 beginners saddle. Terry Brooks from Oklahoma won the number 3 and 4 saddle and Mike Belter from Oklahoma won the 5 and above saddle. In addition Justin boots were awarded to the runner up in each rating catagory. Mike Belter payed a huge complement to Todd Jey by saying "this is the 1st saddle I have ever won that I look forward to riding". RSNC is proud to award such quality saddles to our contestants.

Justin Boot winners were Joel Lesh, Shawn Wyatt, Carrie Wyatt, Devon Lyles and Taylor Wyatt.

Class Winners winning Maynard buckles and Iconocast boots were as follows: #11 Ranch Hand Cathy Herman and Devon Lyles, Rookie Handicap Gary Nelson and Shelly Fitzgerald, 12 Handicap Travis Cummings and Joel Lesh, 14 Ranch Hand Carrie Wyatt and Mike Belter, 6 Handicap Dylan Steeley and DeRoy White, 8 Handicap Joe Johnson and Rich Shaver, Beginner Ranch Hand Andy Teel and Mike Belter, All Levels Jared and Joel Lesh, Masters Tony Epperson and Dave Trammel, Youth Weston Wyatt and Mike Belter and Satie Hawkins Terry Brooks and Cathy Herrmann.

The saddle race came down to the last class of the day for the 3 and 4 division with 4 contestants in the running and all in the top ten of the number 8 division. Terry Brooks, Gary Nelson, Devon Lyles and DeRoy White were all within just a few points of each other. DeRoy had some bad luck and ended up 9th and 10th for 1 1/2 points. Devon ran hard and got 4th place earning 6 points. Gary had a great shot with 3 teams back and placed 5th,8th and 9th for a total of 8 points. However the leader coming in was Terry and he held off all contenders and clinched the win with a 2nd place and 8 points. That made for an exciting finish to a great weekend of Sorting.

National Sponsors are very important and were displayed throughout the areas. They are Priefert who shipped in 120 panels for the event, Dream Horse, Justin Boots, Cinch, Purina, B and W Hitch, Pro Cutter, Synbiont, CSI Saddle Pads and Spaulding Fly Control, Todd Jey Saddles, Atwood Hats, Merial, Riatta Rake, Iconoclast, Maynard Buckles, United Vet Supply, Western Horse Company, Revita Vet, BG Products, and Horse Digest.

Thanks to the RSNC staff, some great cattle and a great facility the show ran perfectly. Each day was finished up early so contestants could enjoy their evening and get together for dinner and tall tales. Mr Brad Hathoway who Judges all of the Regionals and sees every run of every day summed it up nicely in his own way and we would like to share it with you.

Wichita Falls was fun and great, and if you weren't there it's now to late. The cattle were good, honest and fair, but each herd had it's bear. Many teams made it work and some did not, there were no cows that could be bought. Great times were many, some no times as well, but I'm sure there will be some stories to tell. I know everyone has a place to be, so thanks to all of you from RSNC.

ALL SUPPORT IS NOT CREATED EQUAL

There are 32 ligaments and tendons in the lower equine leg. For years polo wraps and splint boots have been used in an effort to protect horses against impact in this region, however, they offer your horse very little support.

Utilizing our revolutionary Double Sling Straps system, the Iconoclasts Equine Support Boots are specifically designed to provide true 360-degree support to your horse's lower limb. Iconoclasta Boots are endorsed and prescribed by leading equine veterinarians around the world to protect against and even rehabilitate injuries caused from hyperextension.
