Simply SPECTACULAR!

That's the first thought that comes to mind when I reflect about the 2010 RSNC National Finals. There were many reasons for that including: great contestants, staff, cattle and clinicians who all gathered at a great facility to have a lot of FUN!

While competitive, Ranch Sorting is our number one priority, having fun runs a close second because then everyone goes home a winner. The original prediction was a Finals that rivaled last year with just over 3,000 teams, but as the stall count continued to grow we knew the team count would follow. By the time the Finals arrived we made some scheduling adjustments and were well prepared for the nearly 4,000 teams that competed.

This allowed for 4-6 p.m. completions every day and lots of time to relax around the campfire and enjoy the evenings with friends and family. The cattle were challenging but remarkably even throughout and the competition was fair. We had a rating committee at the finals and there were only eight ratings that were asked to be reviewed of which five were moved. This is proof that our rating system and our producers are doing a great job in allowing contestants of all levels to fairly compete.

I would like to thank the entire support staff of 34, dedicated to success. These team members worked like a well oiled machine to make this National Finals not only record breaking in size but also a truly enjoyable experience for all involved. A big thank you must also go out to our great sponsors as well as the excellent clinicians that put the icing on the cake each and every day!

The positive comments from contestants were non-stop and very much appreciated. Be sure to read this issue of The Ranch Sorter cover to cover to learn more. Also Horse TV will soon have a DVD available that will be a wonderful way to save the memories of this spectacular event. To order your copy, call the RSNC office now.

With that said, a brand new been set to literally explode that there is unprecedented 10,000 recorded hits on the by friends, family and so streaming. There were also Digest was there and will magazine. We had filming with Aaron Ralston" and the Chown. Horse TV was also filming for a documentary on the sport and will soon have that DVD available with our National Finals highlights. All of this will start airing in September and producers from everywhere need to have events booked so there will be places for the masses to compete. We must be ready to open up the sorting pens all across America. The time is now to book your shows.

Some great upcoming events are Cheyenne, July 28-August 1, a special Michael Martin Murphy sorting and concert August 12-13 in Rifle, Colorado, the Sort for Autism charity event September 9, in Fort Worth, Texas and the Oklahoma and Kansas State Fair Sortings on September 10 and September 19-20. These are just a few of many great events so check the calendar of events on the website for a complete listing.

Be sure to check out the new "How to Ranch Sort DVD." It will be the perfect way to help all of us improve and introduce new contestants to the sport.

New ratings and rule changes will be posted on the web site soon. Welcome to a new year and remember to bring a new member to the next event you attend for your free membership. Otherwise your membership will be due.

...proof positive that there is unprecedented interest in our sport from over 10,000 recorded hits on the RSNC web site the week of the Finals...

year is upon us and the stage has the sport. We have proof positive interest in our sport from over RSNC web site the week of the Finals many others watching the live video hits from 8 different countries! Horse feature Ranch Sorting in their next from two RFD TV shows, the "Ride "Wide World of Horses" with Robert

2010 RSNC NATIONAL FINALS RESULTS

THE FUNNEST NATIONAL FINALS EVER

The verdict is in and the decision is unanimous! Contestants, vendors, sponsors and the RSNC staff all agree that the 2010 RSNC National Finals was not only record breaking in size with 3,800 teams, but also the FUNNEST National Finals ever.

A 600 team increase from last year is proof positive that the sport is steam rolling forward. The attraction of new members is a beacon of light that many other equine disciplines aren't receiving and it is obvious RSNC isn't taking it for granted. That is exactly why they went overboard in making sure that the Finals wasn't just another event.

To start off, 3800 teams in six days converts to close to 5,000 runs when you add 2nd, 3rd and final rounds. So you do the math, that's about 830 runs each day. Astonishingly, there wasn't a day that went past 6:00 p.m. and several were complete before 5:00 p.m. This allowed both contestants and staff to relax and enjoy the evenings like never before.

Throughout the week in addition to the superb ranch sorting competition, there were so many other enjoyable activities scheduled that there was never a dull moment. Guy McLean, an Australian horseman gave spectacular demonstrations every day with four horses that acted as if they understood English. Aaron Ralston dedicated all week to providing cattle skill demonstrations and offering clinics and tips to help individual contestants. Dale Martin provided great insight on how he designed the Ranch Sorter Saddle and how a saddle should fit a horse. Also Tim Lynch, a multi World Champion Reiner and horseman offered a superb clinic on horsemanship.

The positive feed back from contestants about those clinics was tremendous.

Then came the fun stuff! Apple bobbing, sack races, cowboy races, team penning, flags, poles and barrel racing were all arena 4 activities each and every day that both kids and adults took advantage of while waiting for their turn to ranch sort. Once again RSNC is thinking out of the box and it is working quite well.

The evenings were filled with music around the campfire by Mickey and Betsy Plemmons, hot dogs and s'mores, houseboat dinner rides on Lake Murray, and a band at 2 Frogs. A free Producers' dinner banquet with over 300 in attendance honored our great producers. This all was only made possible because the RSNC staff ran such a spectacular event and scheduled it in such a way that contestants had time to have fun. The new RSNC Ranch Sorting Software passed the optimum test with 3800 teams, 6 computers and those wonderful new arena monitors that allowed contestant to know what was happening in every arena all day long.

With lots of money on the line, both the Wednesday and Saturday night finals were full of anticipation and excitement. The two finals splitting the week helped a few who couldn't stay all week, but most were having too much fun to leave and decided to stay anyway.

Saturday night was the icing on the cake with a celebrity sort for Western Wishes with many world champion horsemen from other disciplines participating and having fun ranch sorting for the first time.

Then President Dave Wolfe entered through the back gates of the sorting pens on a Harley Davidson Hog to kick off the finals competition with 18 Reinsman saddles, 60 RSNC jackets and bags of money hanging from the ceilings to add adrenaline, pressure and excitement to a spectacular event.

There are no questions why RSNC continues to explode, and why next year will be even bigger! If you missed it this year, you should start planning now for some FUN, FRIENDLY, FAMILY COMPETITION at next year's RSNC National Finals!

MEDIA COVERAGE AT FINALS

10,000 HITS ON WEBSITE TO WATCH THE FINALS LIVE!

Media coverage for the finals at Ardmore was excellent with several local and national entities present to aid us in spreading the word about our fun and rewarding sport. Everyone was impressed by the quality of the show, diversity of experience, and ages present that were successfully participating. This is a family based sport that is open to anyone who wants to experience the pace and tradition of ranch based cattle work.

Two local television stations sent down cameras and reporters as well as two area newspapers. They had heard about the excitement and came to see for themselves what we are all about. News hit the street while the show was still in progress. Horse Digests magazine and Horseshowwebcasts.com joined forces to invite as many as possible, with emails and magazine exposure, to watch the finals live via the internet. With over 10,000 hits, people from eight different countries and all over the United States tuned in through www.RSNC.us and www.HorseShowWebcasts.com to watch the action as it happened. All three arenas were available. Horse Digests is going to continue to feature RSNC in upcoming issues of their magazines and email campaigns.

That's not all, the coverage will continue with TV shows and DVD sales. John May with HorseFlicks and HorseTV shot footage all week and will produce DVDs and a show. Aaron Ralston was present for the entire event, giving clinics and participating in the sorting. He will be featuring us in an episode of "The Ride with Aaron Ralston" that will air on RFD TV. Also airing on RFD will be a feature produced with "Wide World of Horses." They were filming during the finals and Celebrity Sort, which was held on Saturday, the final day of the show.

RSNC FINALS CELEBRITY SORT BENEFIT FOR WESTERN WISHES

Aaron Ralston and Ranch Sorting National Championships would like to thank the 16 teams that participated in the Celebrity Sort on July 3 for the benefit of Western Wishes. Western Wishes is a non-profit charity that grants wishes to kids that are inflicted with severe health issues and tries to also give them hope and encouragement. And this benefit hit home for a young man named Bryan Wilson in a way that no one at the event realized until later.

Aaron Ralston, who is the host of "The Ride," also organized and was the host of the Celebrity Sort. Guests in the sort included Jim Babcock of Babcock Ranches,

Dick Pieper of Pieper Performance Horses, World Champion bull rider J.W. Hart, Robert Chown of the show "Wide World of Horses," Brooks Atwood of Atwood

Bryan Wilson and Dave Wolfe.

Hats, James Miller of Reinsman, Jackie Dayberry from Equipride, Guy McLean an amazing clinician from Australia, Tiffany Fraser of Trailer-cleaner.com, Gerald Cosby and Benton Bland from Circle Y Ranches, Jim Birdwell of the WT Wagoner Estate, Shawn Hays, Rusty Dare, Jeff Petska, Kurt Crawford and Aaron Ralston all of who are World Champions and top horseman in the equine industry.

The teams were auctioned off and the competition was about to begin after a demonstration by Guy McLean, Aaron Ralston and Ken Ferda. Ken had signed up for a clinic the day before with Aaron Ralston. Ken lost his leg in an accident, and was having a hard time getting his horse to stand next to the fence so that he could mount his horse. Aaron worked with the horse for a few minutes and then asked Guy McLean if he had any ideas since he works with horses to do such things. Within fifteen minutes Guy had the horse standing calmly next to the fence without any restraints so that Ken could mount his horse.

Aaron wanted to show the rest of the audience what he had witnessed the day before. As the demonstration took place you could see a special interest in young Bryan's face from Western Wishes. The demonstration went off without a hitch, but afterwards there was a special look and excitement in Bryan. Come to find out, Bryan has bone cancer and he was going to find out later that week if the doctors needed to amputate his leg. He worried that he could not do many things if they did amputate his leg and this gave him the hope and encouragement that he still could.

The celebrity sort was set up as a competition between two teams going head to head at the same time for sixty seconds, sorting as many cattle without being flagged out. All of the celebrities looked as though they had been sorting before. In the end it was Kurt Crawford's team vs. Dick Pieper's team, with Pieper's team taking home the championship. For most of the contestants it was an introduction to ranch sorting and everyone had so much fun that they want to do it again next year.

Again we would like to thank all the participants in the celebrity sort, Jan Smith and Eileen Phillips of Western Wishes Oklahoma, and we especially want to thank and wish good luck to Bryan Wilson. To view the celebrity sorting please go to www.horsetv.com.

BENTON, KANSAS EVENT

A big thank you to the Prairie Rose Ranch owned by Greg and J.W. Johnson, for the free use of their arena and the opportunity to put on a show in conjunction with the western festival hosted by Michael Martin Murphy. If you've never been there and live in the area, visit their website at www.prairierosechuckwagon.com and check out their upcoming events. Another big thank you to Michael Martin Murphy for the time that he took out of his busy schedule to watch a little of the sorting, sign autographs and jump on Van's horse for a Kodak moment with us! I think those of us that attended the concert the night before left with a new appreciation not only for his songwriting and singing ability, but for his amazing guitar playing and vast knowledge of western history. It was great entertainment, if you missed it; make plans to attend next year as we've been invited back to again be a part of the festival!

It was good to see so many new sorters and I received a lot of positive emails asking when the next show would be. I'd like to thank all of the experienced riders that threw their names in the draw pot. Most of them told me to put them in however many times I needed too. Their willingness to help the beginners, especially the brand new beginners, is a testament to their love of the sport and their desire to help it grow. Class winners were as follows: All Levels HC: Kathy Rogers and Ken Wallace, Beginner/Rookie HC: Heath Johnson and Marvin Entz, Masters #10 HC: Van Gemmill and Ken Wallace.

Don't forget to check out the RSNC Website in August. RSNC has been invited to put on a show in Rifle CO to go along with Michael Martin Murphy's concert. Michael intends to have lots of fun and participate in Ranch Sorting. You may be the lucky one to sort with a celebrity. This will be double the fun sorting and listening to the great country music by Mr. Murphy himself.

RSNC SENDS STATES OVER $50,000 IN PRIZES TO STATE FINALS COMPETITION!

Even though the National Finals are over for the year, the State Championships are still in full swing and rapidly approaching with many contestants in the midst of an exciting points race that will conclude in December of this year.

We at RSNC realize not everyone can attend the National Finals to take advantage of all the great prizes that are awarded there so this year in January we started a state points race and are giving the producer from each state that has generated the most teams from the previous season the opportunity to host a State Finals.

RSNC is contributing six trophy jackets to be given to the winner of each ratings category for every state that hosted at least five sanctioned events and 30 trophy jackets to the top five winners of each ratings category for every state that hosted 10 or more events.

So far there are over 400 jackets tagged for awards! There is still plenty of time for more events and more states to get involved.

Contestants help us get your state involved so you can win these great trophy jackets from RSNC and your producer!

Be sure to check below to see where you currently stand and watch the website for a complete listing of current points standings. The top State Producers from the previous season will be listed soon so they can start making plans to host the State Finals.

2010 State Championship Point Standings

Due to space issues, these pages list the top 5 individuals in each division only. The top 20 individuals in each division will be eligible for prizes at the Finals. For a complete listing of points go to the RSNC website at www.rsnc.us

RR RANCH EVENTS IN MOUNDS, OKLAHOMA

The weather was warm but we were still blessed with a lot of new faces with 289 teams in May and 190 teams in June. All were looking for those last few points before the national finals.

Riders were from Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Texas and Wyoming. Cheree Lebrecht and Shelly Martinez from Wyoming made us all step up and pay attention to our sorting.

It was enjoyable to meet new folks and a good time was had by all.

Results for our May event:

All Levels: Rex Cooper and Danielle Goyer

#10 HC: Annette Lee and Larry Newport

#11 Rookie: Vince Lee and DeRoy White

#10 Beginner RH: Ronnie Pierce and DeRoy White

HANSEN PERFORMANCE HORSES

Hansen Performance Horses wishes to congratulate our customers and friends on their fine performances at RSNF Finals in Ardmore. Congrats to Michelle Whipple, Kevin Speers, Michael Tracy, Mickey Plemons and Frank Schwegel on finishing in the Top 10 for year end points or placing in a class at finals. We are proud of everyone that competed!!!

HORSES FOR SALE

Smart Hannah is a 1998 Sorrel AQHA mare. Mike has placed first or second on Hannah in every class he has ridden her in including two 2nd place finishes at RSNF Finals in the Open and the All Levels classes. She is quick, light, easy to ride, and loves to work cows. Her pedigree is hard to beat.

Flyin Alexa Lena is a 1998 Bay AQHA mare. Lex is a super cute, well put together mare with good bone and good muscle. Lex is a very nice all around horse that has the training and breeding to go in many different directions. She is trained to Pen and Sort, but has had lots a reining training as well.

Hontubby Heaven is an ABSOLUTELY gorgeous 2004 Red Roan AQHA Gelding. Tubby has proven that he has the speed, athleticism, cow sense, and heart (of gold) to compete at the top level in both Penning and Sorting. He places #1 or #2 in most every class Mike rides him in.

Cute Cutter Birdie is a 2005 Sorrel AQHA Mare. Holly is a well balanced, well put together, pretty made mare that has shown she has what it takes to be a great sorter/penner. She would also make a nice broodmare someday because she has good conformation and a good disposition.

For more information on these and other horses for sale as well as training & lesson information, please go to our website - www.hansenperformancehorses.net

Ranch Sorting: An Introduction to the Sport

Ranch Sorting: An Introduction to the Sport

The exciting sport of Ranch Sorting evolved from ranches all across the country when cowboys sorted steers from heifers and calves from cows. This exploding sport is a fun competitive event that the entire family can participate in.

On this DVD, professional horseman Aaron Ralston and Dave Wolfe, President of Ranch Sorting National Championships, demonstrate ranch sorting techniques and explain the rules of the game. Whether you are new to the sport or looking for some helpful tips to improve your performance, this instructional DVD will help you get to the pay window sooner in this fast-paced, timed event.
