PRESERVING OUR HERITAGE

THE COWBOY AND HORSEMANSHIP WAY OF LIFE IS A PRECIOUS ONE AND RANCH SORTING IS ONE OF THE GREATEST AVENUES FOR PEOPLE OF ALL AGES AND SKILL LEVELS, BEGINNER TO SEASONED PROFESSIONAL, TO ENTER THE ARENA OF COMPETITION AND CELEBRATE OUR WESTERN WAY OF LIFE.

Dear Riders,

Are you looking for an equine sport that's fun, family-friendly, and welcoming to all skill levels? Please consider this my personal invitation to try ranch sorting.

Ranch sorting is a timed event that takes place in two, 50-foot round pens connected by a 13-foot opening. Eleven head of cattle-numbered 0-9 (and one blank)-start in one pen, while two riders on horseback start in the other. When contestants cross the center line, the announcer gives them a number. The objective is to sort the cattle in numerical order from one pen to the other within a 60-second time limit. The team that sorts the most cattle in the fastest time wins! If cattle cross to the other pen in the wrong order, it results in a no-time. It's that simple.

Ranch sorting is one of the fastest growing equine sports because all levels of riders can compete and have a chance to win. The handicap and classification system ensures contestants match against others at the same level. The confined area allows anyone-from a grandma on a trail horse to a brand-new rider-to feel comfortable. For more experienced and talented riders, the variety of each run and the finesse required in working cattle make the sport exhilarating and will leave you wanting more.

Finding your place in our community is easy: visit RSNC.us to locate nearby events and to find membership information. We've also got a home on HorseandRider.com, so be sure to check out the Cinch RSNC category under News & Events on the home page. At local ranch sorting events, producers welcome newcomers and serve as excellent resources for those looking to get involved. I encourage you to haul in, hang out, and enter up. With more than 300 sanctioned events annually, there will be a show near you, and there isn't a better community of horse people than ranch sorters!

Join us for the 2025-2026 season and discover firsthand why ranch sorting has captured the hearts of riders nationwide. I look forward to welcoming you at an upcoming RSNC event.
